2011-12 MEDIA GUIDE

We are using a patient's genome to protect against heart attacks and stroke.

Each person responds differently to medicine. Using DNA, our doctors match heart patients with the right blood thinner. It's one of the many ways we are tailoring medicine to the unique characteristics of each patient.

MANAGEMENT & STAFF
OWNERSHIP

On December 7, 2007, Predators Holdings LLC purchased the Nashville Predators and Powers Management (the company that operates Bridgestone Arena) and took over the day-to-day operation of the National Hockey League team and Bridgestone Arena.

Predators Holdings LLC includes local executives in finance, health care and private business. Members include: Thomas Cigarran, Christopher Cigarran, Herb Fritch, Joel and Holly Dobberpuhl, DeWitt Thompson IV, Dewitt Thompson V, John Thompson, David Freeman and Warren Woo.

PREDATORS HOLDINGS LLC

THOMAS G. CIGARRAN

Tom Cigarran was a co-founder, former chairman and CEO and current Chairman Emeritus and Director of Healthways, Inc. He was also a co-founder and former Chairman and CEO and a current Director of AmSurg Corporation, the nation's largest outpatient surgery center company. He was elected Chairman of the Nashville Predators in March 2010.

Cigarran has served on the boards of several public and private companies and on the boards of several community non-profit organizations including the Vanderbilt University Medical Center, Alive Hospice, the Mental Health Association, Alignment Nashville and the Nashville Area Chamber of Commerce. In addition, he is active in helping to improve public education in Nashville and in Haiti.

He received his undergraduate degree from Villanova University and an MBA degree from New York University.

CHRISTOPHER C. CIGARRAN

Chris Cigarran is the Vice President of Employer Solutions at Nashville's Healthways, Inc., the nation's leading and largest provider of specialized, comprehensive solutions to help millions of people maintain or improve their health and well-being and, as a result, reduce overall costs.

Cigarran received his undergraduate degree from Bucknell University and his master's degree from Pepperdine University.

HERBERT A. FRITCH

Herbert A. Fritch has served as the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of HealthSpring, Inc., and its predecessor, NewQuest, LLC, since it began operation in 2000. Beginning his career in 1973 as an actuary, Fritch has more than 30 years of experience in the managed healthcare business. He is also one of the Predators three alternate governors.

A graduate of Carleton College, Fritch and his wife Barbara reside in Nashville. They are members of United Way's Tocqueville Society and Barbara serves on the board of the Nashville Zoo

JOEL & HOLLY DOBBERPUHL

Joel Dobberpuhl is the CEO and portfolio manager of Jetstream Capital, a global hedge fund he founded in 2003. Prior to founding Jetstream Capital, Dobberpuhl was a senior portfolio manager for AIM investments. He is also the Predators representative on the NHL Board of Governors.

Dobberpuhl received his degree from Southern Methodist University in 1988 alongside Holly (Stone) Dobberpuhl. Together, the Dobberpuhls are active in several charities based in the Nashville Area and have both served on the boards of Mercy Children's Clinic and Rocketown Ministries. Mrs. Dobberpuhl, a passionate Predators fan, also serves on the board of Saddle Up!, a therapeutic riding facility in Franklin, Tenn.

Joel, Holly, son Samuel and daughter Lily reside in Nashville.

DEWITT C. THOMPSON IV

DeWitt (De) C. Thompson IV currently serves as President and Chairman of Thompson Machinery Commerce Corporation, and is the Chairman of Thompson Machinery, the Caterpillar dealer for Middle and West Tennessee and North Mississippi.

Thompson is a director of PureWorks, Inc., and PHG Energy, and Co-Founder/former Vice-Chairman of FCC Equipment Financing, Inc. He has served as President or the Nashville Youth Hockey League and Vice Chairman-Regional Development for the Nashville Area Chamber of Commerce.

A graduate of Vanderbilt University who also attended U. S. Air Force Flight School, Thompson, his wife Jacqueline, reside in Nashville.

DEWITT C. THOMPSON V

DeWitt (De) C. Thompson V currently serves as the president of Thompson Machinery, the Caterpillar dealer for Middle and West Tennessee and North Mississippi. Thompson founded PureWorks, Inc. in 1999 and continues to serve as the company's chairman of the board. He is also chairman of the board of PHG Energy and serves on the board of Southcomm Inc.

A graduate of Vanderbilt University, Thompson, his wife Jamee, son DeWitt VI and daughters Helen, Grace and Laura reside in Nashville.

JOHN P.G. THOMPSON

John Thompson is an executive sales manager at Thompson Machinery, where he has worked since January 2006. He is a Director of PHG Energy, and he owns and manages Thompson Properties, LLC, a real estate property investment company. Prior to working for Thompson Machinery, he served as an asset manager for Covenant Capital Group, LLC.

A graduate of Vanderbilt University, Thompson is active in the Nashville community, although he currently lives in Memphis, Tenn.

DAVID S. FREEMAN

David S. Freeman is the founder and owner of 36 Venture Capital and was the former founder and CEO of Commodore Medical Services, a medical waste management company sold in 2007.

Freeman received his undergraduate degree from the University of Tennessee and a Juris Doctor degree from the Vanderbilt University School of Law.

WARREN WOO

Warren Woo is a Partner at Monroe Capital Partners, a credit fund formed in 2011. Prior to Monroe, Warren was a Founding Partner and Managing Director at Moelis & Company as well as a Vice Chairman, member of the Board of Directors and Global Head of Financial Sponsors, Hedge Funds and Leveraged Finance of UBS Investment Bank.

He graduated from the Stanford University Graduate School of Business and from UCLA with a B.A. in economics. Warren is also a member of the Board of Directors of the West Valley Wolves, a youth hockey club. Warren lives in Los Angeles, Calif., with his wife and two sons.

DAVID POILE PRESIDENT OF HOCKEY OPERATIONS/GENERAL MANAGER

The only man to be a finalist for the General Manager of the Year Award for each of its first two years of existence (2010 and 2011), Nashville Predators President of Hockey Operations/General Manager David Poile has been a top voice in the National Hockey League for 29 years (15 with Washington, 14 with Nashville), tied for the fifth longest tenure in NHL history, and second in consecutive active seasons as a GM to the New York Rangers' Glen Sather (31 years).

According to Jason Farris of nhlgms.com, Poile enters the 2011-12 campaign ranked third all-time in both wins (1,049) and games (2,164) by a general manager. Harry Sinden (1,170) ranks first on the wins list, followed by Glen Sather (1,144), while Sather is first on the games list (2,406) with Sinden (2,234) second. On March 21, 2010 at St. Louis, he picked up his 1,000th win as a general manager in a 3-2 Predators victory.

As the architect of a club built on speed, skill and steadfast work ethic, Poile's philosophy of building through home-grown talent and effective drafting continued to pay dividends in 2010-11 as the Predators advanced to the second round of the Stanley Cup Playoffs for the first time in franchise history, this after becoming one of just six teams to make the postseason in six of the last seven seasons and one of four to reach the 40-win mark in each of the last six seasons.

In total, a franchise-record 19 draft picks suited up for Nashville during the 2010-11 campaign, and 14 of the 22 players to dress for Nashville during the 2011 Playoffs were selected and developed by the franchise. The youngest team to make the playoffs and fifth-youngest in the NHL was led by 2011 Norris Trophy runner-up Shea Weber, 2011 Vezina Trophy runner-up Pekka Rinne and 2010 U.S. Olympic silver medalist Ryan Suter. Patric Hornqvist – the final pick of the 2005 Entry Draft (230th overall) – became the second Predator draftee to record back-to-back 20-goal seasons, and was joined on Nashville's forward corps by mainstays David Legwand (1998 draftee), Martin Erat (1999) and Jordin Tootoo (2001) as well as rising talent Cal O'Reilly (2005), Nick Spaling (2007) and Colin Wilson (2008). Joining Weber and Suter on the back end were fellow 2003 draftee Kevin Klein and Cody Franson. Jonathon Blum (2007) – the first Californian selected in the first round of the NHL Draft – and Blake Geoffrion – the first Tennessee native to reach the NHL – became contributors upon their debuts in late February.

The legion of draftees continues to be carefully supplemented by pleasant surprises like Sergei Kostitsyn, who had a breakout year to lead the team in goals and points, and players who fit seamlessly into the Predators culture, like marquee acquisition Mike Fisher, who was instrumental in the team's success down the stretch and in the postseason.

Building a team that earned the fifth seed in the Western Conference with 99 points and gave up the third-fewest goals in the League (190) in 2010-11 despite missing nearly 350 man-games due to injury and having the 21st-ranked payroll in the NHL earned Poile his second straight GM of the Year nomination. In 2009-10, he constructed a team that was one of 11 to hit the 100-point mark, despite having a payroll ranked 28th in the League, to earn a spot as a finalist for the inaugural General Manager of the Year Award.

Under Poile's direction, the Predators have been one of the top teams in the NHL since evolving from an expansion team, to a bona fide contender. Since the start of 2005-06, Nashville's 272 wins ranks sixth-best in the league, while 155 home victories puts them third in the NHL.

The aggressive team-building plan implemented by Poile from the franchise's inception has helped the organization earn the reputation as one of the most stable, well-built teams in the NHL. Crucial to the plan's success is the ability to make the right selections and develop the young prospects. Poile has assembled a bright staff of personnel charged with those responsibilities, including assistant general manager Paul Fenton, chief amateur scout Jeff Kealty, and a coaching staff led by Barry Trotz.

Poile has long been a proponent of a strong developmental system as a means to develop promising young players into productive NHL players. The Predators' primary developmental affiliate, the American Hockey League's Milwaukee Admirals, captured the first Calder Cup Championship in franchise history in 2004 and revisited the Calder Cup Finals in 2006. In 2010-11, the Admirals finished with the top record in the AHL's Western Conference, winning their fourth West Division title in the last eight seasons. Milwaukee also made its ninth consecutive playoff appearance in 2011, and became the first team in AHL history to post 40-or-more wins and 90-or-more points for a eighth consecutive season, each season with a team predominately made up of Predators prospects.

Poile's wisdom and experience is clearly valued throughout the hockey world. He was named associate general manager for the 2010 United States Olympic Team on June 6, 2008, and helped select a team built on youthful speed and skill in December 2009. Team USA would become one of the headline stories of the 2010 Games, capturing the hearts of a nation en route to a silver medal. He also served as associate GM for the U.S. entries into the 2009 and 2010 International Ice Hockey Federation World Championships, and as general manager at the 1998 and 1999 tournaments.

He was also selected as one of four NHL general managers to sit on the first NHL Competition Committee in 2005. The steering body formulates and recommends rule changes for approval by the NHL Board of Governors. In this role, he helped usher in the new era of NHL hockey – featuring on-ice innovations such as the regular-season shootout and the elimination of the red line – while at the same time drawing upon the wealth of experience accumulated through his many years in the game. The Competition Committee continues to be one of the most influential bodies in the game today.

In 2006-07, Poile was recognized by The Sporting News as its Executive of the Year, an honor he had received twice previously (1982-83 and 1983-84) and which is determined through a vote of his peers, after the Predators finished the season with the second-most points in the Western Conference and tied for the third-most points in the entire National Hockey League. The Predators established franchise records in points (110), wins (51), road wins (23) and goals (272) during the campaign. Locally, Business TN magazine honored him as the magazine's "CEO of the Year" for 2006 based on his consistent and successful track record as the team's architect.

In 2001, Poile was a recipient of the Lester Patrick Award in recognition of contributions to hockey in the United States. Poile has devoted his professional career to hockey and the NHL, particularly in non-traditional markets. His late father, Bud Poile, also a recipient of the Lester Patrick Award (1989) and a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame (1990), served as general manager of two expansion franchises – first in Philadelphia (1967) and then in Vancouver (1970). David Poile began his professional career as an administrative assistant with the Atlanta Flames expansion franchise in 1972 and spent 10 years with the organization before being named general manager of the Washington Capitals in 1982.

For the 1982-83 season, Poile took the reins of a Washington team that had never made the Stanley Cup Playoffs. In his 15 years there, the Capitals advanced to the postseason 14 times. The 1997-98 Capitals, largely comprised of players Poile acquired, advanced to the Stanley Cup Finals. During his 15-year tenure, the Caps compiled a record of 596-454-124 (.559), ranking among the NHL's top five teams during that span.

Poile was instrumental in the league's adoption of the instant replay rule in 1991. He was awarded Inside Hockey's Man of the Year award for his leadership on the issue.

A graduate of Northeastern University in Boston, Poile was hockey team captain, leading scorer and most valuable player for two years, earning a place in the University's Hall of Fame.

Poile also serves as an alternate governor for the team and in December 2007, he added President of Hockey Operations to his title for the first time in his career. Poile donates to Operation Homefront (which provides emergency assistance and morale to our U.S. Troops), USA Hockey and the Peterson for Parkinson's Foundation for every Predators victory.

He and his wife, Elizabeth, reside in Nashville. The Poiles have two children – daughter Lauren and son Brian – who was named the Predators Director of Hockey Operations in July 2010 – and a granddaughter – Ellie.

JEFF COGEN CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Jeff Cogen brings more than 30 years of experience in the sports and entertainment industry to the Nashville Predators as the team's Chief Executive Officer, a role he was named to in August 2010. As the CEO of both the Predators and Bridgestone Arena, Cogen is responsible for running the business operations of both the club and the arena.

During his first season as CEO, he helped the organization achieve its most successful sales season to date, with the Nashville Predators increasing attendance from four regular season sellouts in 2009-10 to 16 regular season sellouts in 2010-11 and the team recording its highest ticket renewal rate in franchise history. He was also instrumental in Bridgestone Arena achieving its highest ever Pollstar year-end ranking and first year end inside the Top Ten (sixth in U.S. and 17th in the word).

Prior to joining the Predators, Cogen served as President of both the Dallas Stars (2007-10) and Texas Rangers (2004-07) after previously working under the Hicks Sports Group umbrella from 1993-2001. As President of the Rangers, and then the Stars, Cogen ran all business aspects of the franchises, and also served as Hicks Sports Group's primary representative on American Airlines Center Board that provides oversight and leadership on all arena issues including overall financial performance, capital expenditures, third party events, and team operations.

With the Rangers, where he was also Chief Operating Officer for one year, Cogen increased revenues by 20 percent over a three-year span, and generated revenue streams through a landmark naming-rights deal (Ameriquest Field in Arlington), and through non-traditional outlets such has technological partnerships.

In his first stint with the Stars as Vice President from 1993-99, Cogen helped build the newly relocated franchise's season ticket base to more than 15,000 fans and saw a sellout streak that lasted more than 150 games over a nearly four-season span. After being promoted to Executive V.P. of Marketing and Sales of Southwest Sports Group (entity that operated both the Stars and Rangers), Cogen created synergies between the teams that led to exponential rises in ticket and sponsorship revenue.

Cogen's two stints in Dallas were bridged by a successful two-year stretch as Chief Operating Officer of the Florida Panthers and the then-Office Depot Center. From 2001-03, he executed a naming rights agreement for the venue, and boosted income on both the team and building sides via joint entertainment ventures.

The Newport News, Va., native's first taste of professional sports came as Director, and later Vice President of Marketing for Olympia Arenas, the managing company of Detroit Red Wings, Joe Louis Arena and Fox Theater, from 1986-93. He started his career with Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey Shows in 1979, managing more than 100 engagements until August 1986.

The graduate of Old Dominion has a wife, Jill and three children-twin daughters Kendall and Taylor, a son Matthew, and resides in Franklin, TN .

SEAN HENRY PRESIDENT/CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Now entering his second season as the President/Chief Operating Officer of the Nashville Predators and Bridgestone Arena, Sean Henry has brought a unique and aggressive approach to arena booking and operations, ticket and sponsorship sales and government affairs to his position. In his first season with the team, Henry oversaw the rise of Bridgestone Arena into international trade publication Pollstar's Top 10 U.S. Venue rankings. As President and COO, he is responsible for business operations of the franchise and venue.

Henry spent 11 years with the Tampa Bay Lightning and Palace Sports and Entertainment prior to joining the Predators in August of 2010, serving as their Executive Vice President and COO. While overseeing business operations for the Lightning, St. Pete Times Forum and Single-A baseball's Asheville Tourists, the company saw dramatic increases in media, ticket, sponsorship, suite and event revenues. The St. Pete Times Forum became one of the busiest venues in the country, built around a Stanley Cup Championship in 2004.

Henry's two years prior to his stay in Tampa were spent as Vice President of Sales and Marketing with Unity Motion in St. Louis, Mo., the first company to design, develop and market High Definition television systems to retail markets. Unity Motion boasts the distinction of the first ever live HD broadcast across the United States and the first live broadcasted sporting event in HD.

The Long Island native started working at the tender age of three, helping his father on construction sites. Henry was charged with the largest of tasks – from picking up nails to watching cement cure, he did it all. In 1983, Henry entered sports and entertainment in the illustrious postion of a busboy when he joined Volume Services Inc. He would eventually serve in various management roles with the company through 1997. In his time with Volume Services Henry served as the General Manager of the Palace at Auburn Hills, home of the NBA's Detroit Pistons, the Regional General Manager of the Trans World Dome, home of the NFL's St. Louis Rams and as a project manager on an array of new accounts and construction projects, with his last project being Jack Kent Cooke Stadium, the then-home of the NFL's Washington Redskins.

Henry a graduate of The State University of New York married Tracey Manning, a.k.a. the Suburban Diva, 20 years ago. They have four children – sons Steven (15) and Matthew (11), and daughters Amy (7) and Jessica (4). Henry counts being the runner-up at the Pinewood Derby quarterfinals at the age of 9 with his hand-built O'Henry Bar car as one of his greatest work rewards, right after having his name engraved on the Stanley Cup. Henry serves on the boards of the Nashville Predators Foundation, and The Nashville Downtown Partnership, and he and Tracey are on the Rascal Flatts Behind The Music Host Committee, and are very involved in their children's schools, sports teams and direct fundraising for Attention Home, a home for abused children in Safety Harbor, Fla.

CHRIS PARKER — EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT / CHIEF SALES & MARKETING OFFICER

Now entering his fourth full season with the Predators/Bridgestone Arena, Executive Vice President/Chief Sales and Marketing Officer Chris Parker has directed efforts to secure partnerships with some of Nashville and the nation's most respected and recognizable companies since being promoted to his current title on March 1, 2009. In 2010-11 he helped secure an exclusive financial services partnership with 5/3 Bank and negotiated a long-term integrated broadcast and marketing partnership with Nashville-based Cromwell Group for flagship radio broadcast rights on 102.5 FM The Game. The deal also includes a promotional partnership with sister station 102.9 FM The Buzz. Also in 2010-11, Parker helped facilitate the overall growth in each major revenue stream (tickets sales, corporate partnerships, premium seats and broadcast sales) by 15 percent or more, respectively, versus the previous year.

During the 2009-10 season, Parker directed the organization's efforts to secure Bridgestone Americas Tire Operations Inc., as the new arena naming rights partner. Additionally, he was instrumental in adding the likes of Patrón Spirits Company, whose name is now on the Arena's Suite Level Restaurant, the Ford Motor Company/Mid-South Ford Dealers, Comcast, and Nashville-based entities Vanderbilt University Medical Center, Daily's Convenience Stores and Mars Pet Care.

Parker also led the organization's efforts to secure a new long-term television rights agreement with FOX Sports Tennessee/Sports South. The agreement, which increases the number of telecasts, is also the most lucrative in franchise history. On the ticket sales front, Parker initiated a restructuring effort that resulted in the creation of an inside sales team and a fan relations group more focused and dedicated on the needs of existing ticket holders. Thanks in large part to this effort, the organization achieved its second consecutive year of season ticketholder renewal rates in excess of 90 percent.

In his role with the Predators/Bridgestone Arena, Parker oversees all sales functions of the organization including ticket sales, corporate partnerships and premium seats. He also directs all aspects of the club's business and broadcast partnerships, both locally, nationally and with the NHL offices. Additionally, he plays an instrumental role in redefining Bridgestone Arena through new advertising technologies and sponsor driven renovations.

Parker originally joined the Predators in March 2008 as Senior Vice President of Corporate Development. Prior to coming to Nashville, he served as the Vice President of Business Development with Palace Sports & Entertainment in Detroit. While with Palace Sports and Entertainment, the ownership umbrella which includes the Pistons (NBA), the Shock (WNBA), the Palace at Auburn Hills and several concert venues, Parker managed parts of the corporate marketing department and all new business initiatives.

Prior to his time with Palace Sports, Parker spent nearly 10 years with Silicon Valley Sports & Entertainment (SVSE) the parent company of the San Jose Sharks, HP Pavilion Management and the SAP Open tennis tournament. Parker spent his last five years in San Jose as the Director, Corporate Partnerships where he oversaw all aspects of the organization's corporate sales and service initiatives. During his tenure with SVSE, Parker was responsible for more than $100 million in gross sales, including the naming rights to HP Pavilion, the SAP Open (ATP) and the Comerica Bank Club.

A graduate of the University of Michigan with a degree in sports management and communications, Parker began his sports career with the International Hockey League head office in suburban Detroit.

Parker resides in Nashville and serves on several philanthropic boards and committees including the Alumni Advisory Board of the Division of Kinesiology at the University of Michigan, as Vice Chairman of the Bernard P. "Pat" Maloy Endowed Scholarship at Michigan and the Board of Directors for Junior Achievement of Middle Tennessee.

MICHELLE KENNEDY — EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT / CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER & GENERAL COUNSEL

Michelle Kennedy joined the Predators full-time in March 2008 as In-House Counsel. Kennedy, also a certified public accountant (CPA), accepted the additional charge of Chief Financial Officer for the Predators and Powers Management in 2010 while continuing to serve as the organization's General Counsel. In her current role, Kennedy serves as the organization's primary contact with the ownership group, in addition to overseeing all legal, finance and human resource matters. Kennedy is also extensively involved with key Sports Authority and Metro Government matters.

Kennedy began her career as an auditor at KPMG International, an advisory, audit and tax services company. After nearly five years in public accounting, she joined Vanderbilt University as an Associate Director of Athletics. For six years, she was responsible for oversight of the department's business operations, including ticket operations, facilities, game and event management, as well as oversight of marketing and corporate sponsorship activities. Kennedy continued to work in a consultative capacity for Vanderbilt while attending law school.

Kennedy obtained a B.A. in economics from Vanderbilt University in 1992 and a Juris Doctorate from Vanderbilt University in 2007. A native of Hawesville, Kentucky, Kennedy now resides in Nashville.

CHRIS JUNGHANS — SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, CORPORATE DEVELOPMENT

Chris Junghans was named Senior Vice President, Corporate Development for the Predators and Bridgestone Arena in July of 2009. In this role he directs both the Corporate Partnerships and Premium Seat sales and service staff which strive to bring unique customer experiences and partnerships to key customers and brands. In his short tenure he's helped to secure partnerships with some of the world's most recognizable brands including McDonald's, Pepsi and AT&T.

Prior to his current role, Junghans led the Premium Seats division for the Predators and Bridgestone Arena. During his tenure as both a Director and Vice President, he was able to develop key products and services that led to a 100 percent increase in sales. In addition, he helped pioneer the Bench Seats program which has become a key source of revenue for most of the NHL's 30 clubs.

Junghans started his career with the Florida Panthers in ticket sales and quickly moved through the ranks. After a successful campaign in Florida, he accepted the role of Group and Suite Sales Manager with the Predators where his teams consistently ranked near the top in annual group sales dollars.

In 2007 he was promoted to Vice President, Premium Seat Sales where he formulated a plan to renew more than 60 percent of the team's suite business. The plan and execution proved successful as the team earned a 25 percent increase year over year and became a model for other franchises.

Born in Washington, D.C., Junghans is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte where he was the starting catcher for the UNCC 49ers and was drafted in the 11th round by the Milwaukee Brewers. Chris resides in Franklin, with his wife, Carolina. They have three children, Lia, Alex and Sofie.

GERRY HELPER — SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNICATIONS

A veteran of more than 32 years in hockey having been with the National Hockey League or one of its teams since 1979, Gerry Helper joined the Predators in October 1997, and has served in various communications roles, assuming his most recent position in August 2010. In addition to heading up the club's public and media relations efforts in the hockey operations department, Helper assists in relations with the Sports Authority, Sports Council, Metro and State Governments. Helper works closely with upper management on external organizational and franchise communication issues. He has also served as president or on the board of the Predators Foundation since its inception; the Foundation has distributed more than $3 million to Nashville area charitable and community service organizations, including a single-season record $325,059 in 2010-11.

Helper has also been active with USA Hockey, serving as a communications liaison for the United States' silver medal-winning entry at the 2010 Vancouver Olympics and on USA Hockey's marketing council from 1994-99.

From 1998-2009, Helper oversaw the club's media and public relations efforts, publications, the team's web site, amateur hockey efforts and community relations initiatives. He was on the NHL's Communications Advisory Board from 2004-09, and was the organization's point person with the NHL for the 2003 NHL Entry Draft in Nashville, which drew more than 13,000 people to the Bridgestone Arena.

In his first stint with an expansion franchise, Helper spent nearly seven years (1991-97) with the Tampa Bay Lightning as the team's vice president of communications. He assisted with the development of Tampa Bay's successful 1999 NHL All-Star Weekend bid. He also spent time as the NHL's director of information (1987-89) and director of public relations (1989-91) after beginning his sports career with the NHL's Buffalo Sabres (1979-86). He also worked several Stanley Cup Finals and All-Star Games in his time with the League and the Sabres.

Helper is on the board of directors for the Middle Tennessee YMCA and the Nashville Sports Council. He is a 1979 graduate of St. Bonaventure University with a B.A. in mass communications and a 2000 graduate of leadership music.

Helper resides in Franklin, Tenn., with his wife, Kim, and daughters, Renee and Abigail.

NAT HARDEN VICE PRESIDENT OF TICKET SALES

An "original Predator" who started with the franchise in 1997, Nat Harden enters his fifth season as Vice President of Ticket Sales in 2011-12. In his current role, Harden is responsible for all tickets sales and service for the Nashville Predators.

Harden started with the Predators as a Fan Relations Account Service Executive before becoming a Corporate Account Executive in 2000. He was promoted to Season Ticket Sales Manager prior to the 2003-04 season, then Director of Ticket sales in 2006. Since Harden's promotion to Vice President of Tickets Sales the Predators have increased attendance by more than 20 percent and renewed their season ticket holders at an average of 88 percent during that time.

A graduate of Mississippi State University with a bachelor's degree in business administration and a master's degree in sports administration, Harden played baseball for the Bulldogs from 1992-96. Since taking over the season ticket sales, he has required all employees to ring a Mississippi State/Nashville Predators cowbell upon a sale.

Harden and his wife, Paige, reside in Nashville with their two children – 8-year-old son, Ty, and 5-year-old daughter, Clara.

BROCK JONES VICE PRESIDENT OF BOOKING, BRIDGESTONE ARENA

Since 2006, Brock Jones has been responsible for acquiring, scheduling and overseeing all events at Bridgestone Arena. He has been instrumental in the growth and success of the entertainment opportunities provided at the arena.

Now in his 23rd year in the industry, Jones began his career booking acts throughout the Western United States as an independent promoter before becoming involved in venue management. Brock has been integral in Bridgestone Arena's record breaking success including being nominated for the 2007, 2008, 2009 and 2010 Pollstar Concert Venue of the Year Awards, winning the Academy of Country Music's 2009 Venue of the Year Award and receiving the 2008 and 2010 International Entertainment Buyer's Association (IEBA) Concert Venue of the Year Awards.

In addition, he serves on the Nashville Music Business Council, the Board of Directors for the Nashville Chapter of Musicians On Call, the Board of Directors for the T.J. Martell Foundation and is an active Alumni of Leadership Music.

Brock obtained a B.A. and MPA from Idaho State University and received his JD from The University of The Pacific.

ALLISON SIMMS VICE PRESIDENT OF HUMAN RESOURCES

Allison Simms joined the Nashville Predators as Director of Human Resources in 2006, was elevated to Senior Director in 2008, and promoted to her current role as Vice President of Human Resources in 2010. Her responsibilities include managing and directing all human resources and payroll functions for both the Nashville Predators and Powers Management.

Simms began her career in human resources in the insurance and healthcare fields before transitioning to the exciting industry of sports & entertainment. An alumni of Middle Tennessee State University, Allison has a bachelor's degree in education and is a member of Society for Human Resource Management.

As a Nashville native, Simms stays involved in the community with a passion for animal rescue. She and her husband, Matt, and their two Labrador Retrievers reside in Nashville.

BRIAN POILE DIRECTOR OF HOCKEY OPERATIONS

Brian Poile enters his second season with the Nashville Predators as the Director of Hockey Operations in 2011-12. Poile's primary responsibilities for the team include preparation and research for negotiating player contracts, salary arbitration and overseeing minor league affiliation agreements with the American Hockey League's Milwaukee Admirals and ECHL's Cincinnati Cyclones. He is also involved with fiscal and strategic planning, evaluating pro and amateur players and managing the club's payroll, salary cap and compliance with the Collective Bargaining Agreement, as well as the day-to-day business operations of the hockey department.

Poile began his career with the NHL's Dallas Stars, spending one season as the Stars' Director of Team Services and three seasons as the Director of Hockey Operations for their AHL affiliate, the Utah Grizzlies, in Salt Lake City. In his role in Utah, Poile managed the Grizzlies hockey department, club roster, budget, player contracts, team travel, schedules, training camps, scouting and player call-ups. He also served as an Alternate Team Governor, in addition to managing NHL/ECHL affiliation agreements and the AHL, Professional Hockey Players Association and Collective Bargaining Agreement issues.

Hockey roots run deep in the Poile family. He is the son of Predators' President of Hockey Operations/General Manager, David Poile, and grandson of Hockey Hall of Fame Inductee, Norman "Bud" Poile. Poile earned his bachelor's degree in communications at Boston College in 2000.

Poile, his wife, Valerie, and dog, Wiley, reside in Nashville.

MANAGEMENT & STAFF
MANAGEMENT

PAUL FENTON ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Now in his 14th season with the Predators, and his sixth as the club's assistant general manager, Paul Fenton has been instrumental in bringing in many of Nashville's core players, primarily through the draft, but also through trades and free agent signings.

After serving as the director of player personnel for the Predators' first eight seasons, Fenton was promoted to assistant general manager on June 5, 2006, where he oversees the Predators' amateur player development, manages the team's professional and amateur scouting staff and advises President of Hockey Operations/General Manager David Poile on player personnel decisions. He has been in charge of all player acquisitions since joining the Predators and managed the club's Entry Draft efforts since 2003 (when the team selected Ryan Suter, Shea Weber and Kevin Klein), doing so jointly with Chief Amateur Scout Jeff Kealty in the process since 2008. Nashville's 2011 playoff roster, which advanced to the second round for the first time in franchise history, included 12 players selected during Fenton's time managing the draft table, and another four that emerged as NHL regulars after coming to the organization.

Fenton also serves as general manager of the Predators' primary developmental affiliate, the Milwaukee Admirals of the American Hockey League, who made their ninth consecutive playoff appearance – winning their fourth division title in the last eight campaigns – and became the first team in AHL history to post 40-or-more wins and 90-or-more points for an eighth consecutive season in 2010-11. He also served as Associate GM for Team USA at the 2011 World Championships.

Fenton joined the Predators after spending five seasons in the Anaheim Ducks' hockey operations department. He served as a scout during his first three seasons with the Ducks and as the chief professional scout the last two years. A number of players drafted during Fenton's run with the Ducks – such as Paul Kariya, Steve Rucchin, Ruslan Salei and Mike LeClerc – led Anaheim to the 2003 Stanley Cup Finals. The Springfield, Mass., native also helped facilitate one of the Anaheim franchise's largest trades, the February 1996 acquisition of Teemu Selanne.

Fenton played eight seasons in the NHL before joining the scouting ranks. He amassed 100 goals and 83 assists in 411 NHL contests while playing for seven different NHL teams, including San Jose during the Sharks' inaugural season (1991-92). In 1989-90, the former Boston University Terrier scored an NHL career-high 32 goals for the Winnipeg Jets, and his impressive playing resume also includes three selections to AHL and IHL All-Star teams.

Paul and his wife, Nona, reside in Brentwood. They have two sons, P.J. and Owen. P.J. was the San Jose Sharks' sixth selection, 162nd overall (fifth round), in the 2005 NHL Entry Draft and will play his third professional season in Germany in 2011-12 with the Bietigheim Steelers. Owen is a doctorate student in Chemistry at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT).

MARTIN GELINAS DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Martin Gelinas enters his third season as the Predators' Director of Player Development in 2011-12. In his role, Gelinas is responsible for following and evaluating prospects drafted by Nashville, in addition to working with players on all levels throughout the United States, Canada and Europe. He assists them with their maturation process into NHL players by focusing on nutrition, off-ice workouts and conditioning, practice habits and game performance.

The native of Shawinigan, Quebec, joined the Predators in 2008 after a distinguished playing career that spanned 21 seasons and three decades. Gelinas posted 660 points (309g-351a) in 1,273 NHL games (1988-2008), and also played two professional seasons in Switzerland (2004-05 and 2008-09), amassing 83 points (53g-30a) in 69 games. The left wing with Edmonton, Quebec, Vancouver, Carolina, Calgary and Florida rounded out his NHL career with the Predators in 2007-08, appearing in 57 games (9g-11a-20pts). At the close of the 2010-11 season, Gelinas' combined regular-season and playoff game total (1,420) ranked 42nd all-time.

He became the oldest player ever to don a Nashville jersey when he made his debut with the club on October 4, 2007, and was the team's nominee for the Masterton Trophy after having his season cut short due to a knee injury sustained on February 21, 2008. The top offensive season of his career came in 1996-97 with the Canucks when he registered 68 points (35g-33a) in 74 games.

Gelinas won a Stanley Cup with Edmonton in his first full NHL season (1989-90), and also advanced to the Cup final with Vancouver (1994), Carolina (2002) and Calgary (2004), appearing in deciding Game Sevens in both 1994 and 2004. During his 19-season NHL career, he appeared in the Stanley Cup Playoffs 10 times, notching 56 points (23g-33a) in 147 games. He is one of only two players in NHL history to have scored three playoff-series-clinching goals in one season (the other was Ken Linseman), achieving the feat during Calgary's 2004 Cup run. Two of the goals were in overtime, and he also scored the overtime goal in Game Six that put the Carolina Hurricanes into the Stanley Cup Finals in 2002 against Toronto.

The Los Angeles Kings' first choice (seventh overall) in the 1988 NHL Entry Draft, Gelinas was traded to Edmonton in the package that sent Wayne Gretzky to L.A. on August 9, 1988.

Gelinas is based out of Calgary, Alberta, where he resides with his wife Jane, son Matthew, and daughters Cameron and Morgan. Matthew was selected by Swift Current in the 2010 Western Hockey League Bantam Draft.

BRENT PETERSON HOCKEY OPERATIONS ADVISOR

A Nashville Predator since Day One, Brent Peterson transitions into the role of Hockey Operations Advisor in 2011-12 after 13 seasons as a member of the team's coaching staff. In his new role, Peterson will work closely with General Manager David Poile and Head Coach Barry Trotz on all matters involving the team, in addition to being active in the community and in sponsorship and business operations.

In his time behind the Predators bench as both associate coach (2003-11) and assistant coach (1998-2003), Peterson worked closely with the penalty killing unit that has finished among the top 12 in the NHL in 10-of-12 seasons, and a defensive corps that gave up the second fewest goals in the League in 2010-11. He has helped the club to Stanley Cup Playoff berths in six of the last seven seasons, and reach the 40-win mark in each of the last six seasons, while amassing the League's sixth-highest win total (272) since 2005-06.

Peterson joined the Predators after serving as head coach of the Portland Winter Hawks (WHL) for seven seasons, posting a 201-138-20 mark. During the 1997-98 season, the Winter Hawks were a league-best 53-14-5 and captured the WHL Championship and the Memorial Cup. He was originally appointed co-coach in 1991-92 and was named head coach for the 1993-94 season. He recorded 40-or-more victories on four occasions and helped develop NHL first-round picks Adam Deadmarsh (1993), Jason Wiemer (1994), Brenden Morrow (1997) and Marian Hossa (1997).

Prior to joining Portland, the Calgary, Alta., native spent two seasons (1989-91) as an assistant coach with the Hartford Whalers (NHL) following his retirement as a player. The former Detroit first-round pick (1978) played 11 NHL seasons from 1978-89 with Detroit, Buffalo, Vancouver and Hartford. He appeared in 620 NHL games, collecting 213 points (72g-141a) and 484 penalty minutes. Peterson was known as one of the NHL's top defensive forwards and penalty killers.

A tireless worker in the community, Peterson established the Peterson for Parkinson's Foundation to benefit Parkinson's Disease research, education and support groups in 2007 and it has grown exponentially since then. For the first time in 2011, Peterson for Parkinson's will join forces with the Predators to hold "Petey's Preds Party," a dinner/auction event, and the Nashville Predators/Brent Peterson Celebrity Golf Classic. PFP also holds a golf scramble each summer in Lindsay, Ont., and sponsors a team for the Country Music Marathon.

Brent and his wife, Tami, reside in Franklin, Tenn. They have three children: Ryan, Brad and Kristin.

JEFF KEALTY CHIEF AMATEUR SCOUT

Kealty, now in his 11th season with the organization, has been managing the club's amateur scouting operation as the Predators' Chief Amateur Scout since July 25, 2007. In addition to monitoring the best draft-eligible talent around the globe, Kealty keeps an eye on the CHL, NCAA and other junior leagues in North America and Europe. Reporting to Assistant General Manager Paul Fenton, Kealty also spearheads the team's annual efforts at the NHL Entry Draft.

The Boston native has overseen Nashville's past four drafts, helping to bolster the club's depth across the board, selecting 18 forwards, nine defensemen and three goalies since his first year co-running Nashville's draft table in 2008. While much of the talent Kealty and his staff have selected the past four years is still developing, the future looks bright. 2008 seventh-round gem (207th overall) Anders Lindback looks to be a key piece to Nashville's goaltending future while 2008 first-rounder (seventh overall) Colin Wilson has already spent two seasons with the Predators. The future is also bright for 2008 second-round pick (38th overall) Roman Josi, who will battle with two other Kealty selections – 2011 Swedish Elite League Rookie of the Year Mattias Ekholm (2009 fourth-round pick, 102nd overall) and one of the most decorated junior players in history, Ryan Ellis (2009 first round, 11th overall) – for NHL playing time this season. Another 2009 fourth-rounder (98th overall), Craig Smith, was named one of the United States' top players at the 2011 World Championships while playing NHL-caliber talent, and will also get a chance to break into the Predators lineup in 2011-12.

A former first-round pick (22nd overall) of the Quebec Nordiques in 1994, Kealty was signed by Nashville as a free agent in 1998 following a four-year college career at Boston University. The former defenseman played one pro season for the Milwaukee Admirals (International Hockey League) before his playing career was cut short due to injury.

Kealty, his wife Lynn, daughter Lydia and son James (twins) reside in Norfolk, Mass.

BARRY TROTZ HEAD COACH

The first and only coach in franchise history, Barry Trotz is regarded as one of the top bench bosses in the game today, having been a finalist for the Jack Adams Award as the NHL's top coach for each of the past two seasons (2009-10 and 2010-11). In his 13 seasons and 14 years as the Predators' coach, Trotz has put himself among some legendary names, ranking fourth all-time in games coached (984) and sixth all-time in wins (455) with a single franchise. Trotz also broke into the Top 20 in all-time coaching victories in 2010-11. Additionally, he is one of just seven coaches in all four major North American sports leagues to have coached or managed each of a team's first 12 seasons of existence (NHL: Lester Patrick (13, N.Y. Rangers); MLB: Connie Mack (50, Oakland); NFL: Curly Lambeau (29, Green Bay), Tom Landry (29, Dallas), Hank Stram (15, Kansas City), Paul Brown (15, Cleveland)).

He enters 2011-12 just 16 games away from becoming just the fourth man to reach 1,000 games with a franchise (Al Arbour, 1,500 (N.Y. Islanders); Lindy Ruff, 1,066 (Buffalo); Billy Reay, 1,012 (Chicago)) and is just 10 wins shy becoming the fifth coach to reach 465 victories with one team (Arbour, 740; Ruff, 526; Reay, 516; Toe Blake, 500 (Montreal)).

Trotz, the second-longest tenured coach in the NHL behind only Buffalo's Lindy Ruff, guided the Predators to playoff series victory for the first time in franchise history in 2011, topping the Anaheim Ducks in the Western Conference Quarterfinals before pushing the Stanley Cup Finalist Vancouver Canucks to six hard-fought games in the conference semifinals. Trotz is the only coach to lead his team to the playoffs in six of the last seven seasons, averaging nearly 98 points per season (91 in 2003-04, 106 in 2005-06, 110 in 2006-07, 91 in 2007-08, 88 in 2008-09, 100 in 2009-10 and 99 in 2010-11). The Predators also boast the League's sixth highest win total (272) and third-most home victories (155) in the League since the start of the 2005-06 season.

Trotz's modus operandi is using an aggressive system based on strong forechecking and sound defense to direct a young, hungry, hard-working group to the playoffs on an annual basis. His mission to get the most out of his team helped Trotz earn his second straight nomination for the Jack Adams Award in 2011 after guiding the Predators to the fifth seed in the Western Conference with a 44-27-11 record despite losing 348 man-games due to injury, a number that ranked among the Top Five in the League, having the 21st highest payroll and fifth youngest roster down the stretch, the youngest among playoff teams (26 years, 140 days). Nashville gave up the fewest goals in the Western Conference in 2010-11 (194), and finished with the League's fifth-best penalty kill (87.8 percent).

In 2010, he finished second in voting for the Jack Adams voting his first time as an award finalist after leading his squad to a 47-29-6 record for 100 points, the third-best finish in franchise. In both seasons, Nashville posted one of the NHL's top records down the stretch, going 11-3-1 in its final 15 games of 2010-11 and 14-6-1 after the Olympic break in 2009-10.

Trotz also raked in the individual accolades following the 2006-07 campaign after guiding the Predators to the second-most points in the Western Conference and third-most points in the entire National Hockey League, notching franchise records in points (110), wins (51), road wins (23) and goals (272) in the process. He was named 2007 Coach of the Year by The Sporting News, an honor determined through a vote of his peers, in addition to finishing fourth in Jack Adams voting and serving as an assistant coach for the Western Conference All-Stars at the 2007 NHL All-Star Game.

The 49-year-old Dauphin, Manitoba native reached his goal of becoming an NHL head coach when he was named to his current position on Aug. 6, 1997. After a year aggressively scouting talent in North America and Europe, Trotz and his staff made the most of their opportunity by leading the inaugural edition (1998-99) of the Predators to a 28-47-7 record. Starting with a 3-2 victory over the Carolina Hurricanes on Oct. 13, 1998, the Predators' 28 wins were the third-most in expansion history.

On March 1, 2003, Trotz coached his 392nd game with the Nashville Predators, establishing a league record for most games coached by a team's original coach since the NHL's first expansion in 1967. He surpassed current Nashville broadcast analyst Terry Crisp's mark of 391 games coached as the Tampa Bay Lightning's first coach from 1992-97.

Prior to joining the Predators, Trotz spent five seasons (1992-97) as the head coach of the Washington Capitals' primary developmental affiliate in the American Hockey League. He was named head coach of the Baltimore Skipjacks in 1992 after one season as an assistant coach. Following the franchise's relocation to Portland, Maine in 1993, he led the Portland Pirates to two Calder Cup Finals appearances over the next four seasons. In 1994-95, Trotz coached Portland to a Calder Cup Championship and a league-best 43-27-10 record and captured AHL Coach of the Year honors. In 2006, he was honored with election to the Pirates' Hall of Fame.

Trotz has also gained experience coaching on the international stage, serving as an assistant coach for Team Canada at the IIHF World Championships on three occasions. In 2003, he helped the Canadians strike gold in Russia, and in 2009 he helped guide Canada to a silver medal in Switzerland. The first time he answered the call for his nation came at the 2002 Championships in Sweden.

Trotz began his coaching career in 1984 as an assistant with the University of Manitoba. He then served two seasons (1985-87) as the head coach and general manager of the Dauphin Kings junior hockey club before returning to the University of Manitoba as the head coach in 1987. In January 2001, Trotz was inducted into the University's Hall of Fame.

During the 1987 campaign, Trotz also served as a scout for the Spokane Chiefs (WHL) and a part-time scout for the Capitals. In 1988, he joined Washington as a full-time western scout, and the next season he became the Caps' chief western scout.

Before coaching, Trotz played junior hockey for Regina (WHL) from 1979-83, capturing a WHL championship in 1979-80. The defenseman registered 102 points (19g-83a) and 490 penalty minutes in 204 games.

The popular head coach and his family are active in a variety of service and charitable initiatives in the Middle Tennessee community. This commitment was recognized when Trotz was honored with the Community Spirit Award (in recognition for community service) at the 2005 O'Charley's Dinner of Champions, presented by the Nashville Sports Council.

Since the Predators' inception, the Trotz family has donated $500 to My Friend's House (a United Way agency) for each Nashville victory. Trotz is an active board member for the Peterson for Parkinson's Foundation, the Williamson County YMCA and the United Way. He also works closely with Best Buddies of Tennessee, a nonprofit organization dedicated to establishing a global volunteer movement that creates opportunities for one-on-one friendships, integrated employment and leadership development for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

Barry and his wife, Kim, reside in Brentwood along with their four children: Shalan, Tyson, Tiana and Nolan.

PETER HORACHEK ASSOCIATE COACH

Peter Horachek was promoted to Associate Coach of the Predators on June 15, 2011 after helping guide the club to Stanley Cup Playoff berths in six of his first seven seasons with the organization as an assistant (2003-04 to 2010-11). Horachek has also helped the Predators reach the 40-win mark in each of the last six seasons, while amassing the League's sixth-highest win total (272) since 2005-06.

Known for his energy, passion and knowledge of the game's tactics, Horachek has also played a significant role in Nashville's development of homegrown players, who accounted for 15 of 22 spots on Nashville's 2011 playoff roster – the first in franchise history to advance to the postseason's second round.

Prior to joining the Predators coaching staff on June 19, 2003, Horachek served as head coach of Nashville's primary developmental affiliate, the Milwaukee Admirals of the American Hockey League. He guided the 2002-03 Admirals to a 32-27-14-7 record and their first playoff series victory since 1998.

Horachek, the head coach/director of hockey operations for the ECHL's Nashville Knights in 1990-91, won championships as a coach and a player. In 2000-01, Horachek coached the Orlando Solar Bears to the International Hockey League championship. The Solar Bears went 12-4 in the Turner Cup Playoffs and Horachek was named the 2001 IHL Coach of the Year.

The Stoney Creek, Ont., native took over the coaching duties for Orlando in 1999 after serving as an assistant the previous four seasons. After the Orlando franchise ceased operations following the 2000-01 season, Horachek coached the Trenton Titans of the ECHL to a Northern Conference Championship (46-16-10, .708) in 2001-02.

Horachek began his coaching career in the IHL as an assistant coach with Saginaw in 1987-88. He spent one year as a player/assistant coach with Flint, and another as a player/head coach in Norway. Horachek was named head coach/director of hockey operations for the Nashville Knights (ECHL) in 1990.

As a player, Horachek held the title of team captain in four of his five seasons with the Saginaw/Flint Generals and won a Turner Cup Championship in 1984. He started his pro career with the AHL's Rochester Americans, playing in parts of four seasons (1979-83) with the club. In 545 career professional games, he tallied 188 goals and 238 assists (188g-238a-426pts).

Horachek and his wife, Stacy, reside in Franklin, Tenn. His son, Cullen, attends Kettering University in Northeastern Michigan.

LANE LAMBERT ASSISTANT COACH

Lane Lambert joined the Predators coaching staff as an assistant on June 9, 2011 after four seasons coaching the club's primary development affiliate in the American Hockey League, the Milwaukee Admirals. Eleven members of Nashville's 2011 playoff roster played for Lambert in Milwaukee, and 17 of the 33 players who suited up for the Predators for at least one 2010-11 regular season game spent time playing under his tutelage.

During his time as head coach of the Admirals from 2007-11, Lambert led the club to a 178-103-39 record, the sixth-most wins in the AHL in that span, while giving up the second-fewest goals (821) in the league. Milwaukee posted 40-or-more wins and 90-or-more points all four seasons under Lambert as well, making them the first team in AHL history to reach the marks in eight consecutive campaigns. In addition to four straight Calder Cup Playoff berths, Lambert helped the Ads capture a pair of West Division titles, posting the Western Conference's highest point total in 2010-11 (102 pts, 44-22-14 record) despite seeing 10 of his core players recalled to the Predators during the season. He also captured a division title in 2008-09 when he led a young squad to a 49-22-9 record, tying for the most points (107) in the AHL. The win total tied a club record since joining the AHL for the 2001-02 campaign.

Prior to joining the Admirals as an assistant coach in 2006-07, the Melfort, Saskatchewan native served as an assistant for the AHL's Bridgeport Sound Tigers, the New York Islanders' AHL affiliate, in 2005-06 where he helped to lead the Sound Tigers to a 38-33-9 record and a Calder Cup playoff berth.

Lambert started his coaching career in the Western Hockey League, spending two seasons as head coach of the Prince George Cougars (2003-05) and one campaign as an assistant for the Moose Jaw Warriors (2002-03).

Lambert finished an 18-year playing career with the Houston Aeros in 2000-01. Originally the Detroit Red Wings' second selection, 25th overall (second round), in the 1983 NHL Entry Draft, Lambert finished his NHL career with 125 points (58g-67a) and 521 penalty minutes in 283 games with Detroit, the New York Rangers and Quebec from 1983-89. Lambert enjoyed his most successful NHL campaign with the Nordiques in 1987-88, recording career-highs in points (41) and assists (28) in 61 contests.

The 46-year old Lambert also gained significant playing experience in both the American and International Hockey Leagues, posting a combined 238 points (113g-125a) in 417 games. He won an AHL Calder Cup title with Adirondack in 1986, and helped the Houston Aeros claim the IHL's Turner Cup championship in 1999.

Lambert and his wife, Andrea, have two children, Taylor and Samantha.

COACHING STAFF

DAVID GOOD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

David Good enters his eighth season as the strength and conditioning coach of the Nashville Predators. He joined the Predators in July of 2004 and is responsible for preparing and supervising workout programs for all players in the Predators system. Good also runs the club's prospect development program and the off-ice aspects of the Predators Hockey School in the off-season. During the summer of 2010, he designed and outfitted the new weight room at Bridgestone Arena to facilitate optimal in-season training.

Good was instrumental in developing a program for Steve Sullivan that allowed the Predators forward to return to the ice on January 12, 2009 after almost a two-year absence that included missing 142 straight regular-season games and 11 playoff games due to a back injury. In June of 2009, Sullivan won the NHL's Bill Masterton Memorial Trophy given "to the player that best exemplifies the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey."

Prior to joining the Predators, Good served as the director of speed-strength and conditioning for West Coast Sports Performance and Center for Athlete Medicine in Manhattan Beach, Calif., and also served as a consultant for the Long Beach Ice Dogs (ECHL). The Colorado native served as the assistant speed-strength and conditioning coach for the Los Angeles Kings from 1999-2003 and held the same title from 1997-99 with the Ice Dogs (IHL). He also served as strength and conditioning coordinator at Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles from 1998-99.

Before moving to California, Good served as the student assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Colorado for two years. He received his bachelor of arts degree in kinesiology from the University of Colorado at Boulder along with certifications in strength and conditioning, sports conditioning, Olympic weightlifting and kettlebell training.

Good and his wife, Amanda, reside in Franklin, Tenn.

MITCH KORN GOALTENDING COACH

Mitch Korn is in his 14th season as the goaltending coach for the Predators and in his 21st season in the NHL. He works with all netminders in the Nashville system, including those playing in Milwaukee (AHL), Cincinnati (ECHL), amateur leagues and Europe.

The well-known goaltending coach has helped several Nashville goaltenders burst onto the NHL scene, the most recent being 2011 Vezina Trophy runner-up and NHL Second Team All-Star Pekka Rinne. The Kempele, Finland native ranked second in save percentage (.930) and third in goals-against average (2.12) in 2010-11, and is one of just seven goaltenders over the last three seasons to have played at least 150 games and record a save percentage of at least .920.

Korn's success cultivating netminders for the organization dates back to the 1998 Expansion Draft. Two-time Czech Olympian, 2010 World Champion and NHL All-Star Tomas Vokoun developed into one of the NHL's elite under his watch, while Chris Mason would follow, becoming a legitimate NHL starter after several seasons of working with Korn. In 2007-08, Dan Ellis developed into a No. 1 goalie after playing in just one NHL game prior to joining the Predators, leading the NHL in save percentage (.924) in his first full campaign, before giving way to rookie Rinne in 2008-09. Promising 2010-11 rookie Anders Lindback – a seventh-round selection (207th overall) in the 2008 Entry Draft – appears to be Korn's next prodigy after becoming just the third player to make the Predators out of training camp with no prior North American pro experience.

Before joining the Predators on July 23, 1998, Korn spent seven seasons in the Buffalo Sabres organization, where he enjoyed great success while working with two-time Hart Trophy-winner Dominik Hasek. While working with Korn, Hasek captured four Vezina Trophies and led the NHL in save percentage five times. Korn also saw Buffalo's goaltending tandem (Hasek and Hall-of-Famer Grant Fuhr) capture the NHL's Jennings Trophy (lowest team goals-against average) during the 1994-95 season. In addition to goaltenders, Korn has also developed goalie coaches, with several who have learned under him serving around North America, including five currently at the NHL level.

The New York City native has more than 34 years of coaching experience, beginning his coaching career at Kent State University in 1979 shortly after ending his playing career at the school. He worked at Miami University's Goggin Ice Center in Oxford, Ohio for 30 years until his retirement in 2010, coaching the school's goalies until joining the Sabres in 1991. Korn, who runs goaltending and defenseman schools around the country in the off-season, also has contributed regularly to several hockey publications including USA Hockey Magazine, Goalies' World and In-Goal Magazine.

TRAINING STAFF

DAN REDMOND HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Dan Redmond is in his 14th season as the head athletic trainer of the Predators. The 2011 Professional Athletic Trainer of the Year as presented by the Tennessee Athletic Trainers' Society (TATS), Redmond has been in the athletic training profession for 22 years and has worked more than 1,600 professional hockey games.

Prior to joining the Predators in July 1998, Redmond spent five seasons as the athletic trainer of the Portland Pirates of the American Hockey League (where he worked with Barry Trotz, head coach of the Predators) and four seasons with the AHL's Baltimore Skipjacks. He also spent three years (1987-89) in the Cleveland Indians organization as the athletic trainer for their developmental clubs. He served two stints as a graduate assistant with Radnor High School (Radnor, Pa.) and Temple University Sports Medicine Center.

Redmond is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association. He worked his 1,500th game in professional hockey as an athletic trainer on January 13, 2009.

Redmond resides in Lebanon, Tenn., with his wife, Barbara, daughter, Danielle and son, Sean.

PETE ROGERS HEAD EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Pete Rogers is in his 14th season as head equipment manager of the Nashville Predators. He is responsible for the everyday equipment needs of all the players as well as coordinating transfer of equipment to and from road games. Rogers works with the NHL to ensure compliance with programs concerning equipment tracking, jersey authentication and on-ice exposure. He also played an integral role in the team's new uniform design, working with the manufacturer and League to ensure all specifications and materials met the exact demands necessary to put the product on the ice for the 2011-12 season.

The Western Representative for the Society of Professional Hockey Equipment Managers (SPHEM) and coordinator of the organization's Enhanced Education program, Rogers was the head equipment manager for the Eastern Conference All-Stars at the 2008 NHL All-Star game in Dallas. He has served as the equipment manager for Team USA at the 2006 Winter Olympics and at the IIHF World Championships in 2005 and from 1998-2002. Rogers also worked as Team USA's equipment manager at the 2004 World Cup of Hockey and the 2004 Deutschland Cup in Germany. The veteran worked his 1,500th game as an equipment manager in professional hockey on January 10, 2009.

Prior to joining the Predators in July 1998, the SUNY Brockport graduate spent seven seasons as the equipment manager and director of team travel for the Rochester Americans of the American Hockey League. Rogers spent nine seasons as an assistant equipment manager in Rochester before a one-year stint as head trainer with the Hampton Roads Admirals of the ECHL in 1989-90.

Pete, his wife Judy, and daughter Alexandra, reside in Franklin, Tenn.

PETE WEBER PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

"Voice of the Predators" Pete Weber enters his 14th season as the team's primary play-by-play announcer in 2011-12. His insight into the team and the game of hockey is a regular feature in local sports talk radio and television, and he also consistently contributes to the Predators' website and team publications.

Pete is slated to be a "Western Conference Insider" on Sirius/XM Satellite Radio's "NHL Home Ice" shows (XM 204) once again in 2011-12, and is slated to join "Slapshot Radio" as a co-host this season. In addition to his duties with the team, Weber co-hosted SportsNight (a popular local sportstalk radio program) from July 2003 until August 2005 and has filled in as a program host for ESPN Radio. He has also called the Music City Bowl and done games for the Triple-A baseball Nashville Sounds' broadcasts, in addition to producing and hosting weekly podcasts: "This Week in the Minor Leagues" and the syndicated "Southern Pro Football."

Weber spent two seasons (1995-97) as the radio play-by-play announcer for the Buffalo Sabres, three seasons (1978-81) as the color analyst for the Los Angeles Kings and also served as host of "Hockey Night with the Buffalo Sabres" from 1990-93. Along with his 23 seasons of NHL experience, Weber has served as a play-by-play voice in baseball (Buffalo Bisons, 1983-95), basketball (Seattle SuperSonics, 1981-82) and football (University of Buffalo, 1992). He has called the hockey action for the University of Notre Dame (1974-76) and the University at Buffalo (1976-78) and was part of the Buffalo Bills' broadcast team during their four Super Bowl seasons (1990-93).

Weber was inducted into the Buffalo Baseball Hall of Fame in 1999. He has won Mid-South Regional Emmys for his work on Predators' broadcasts in 2003, 2008 and 2010. He also sits on the National Academy of TV Arts and Sciences Nashville/Mid-South Chapter's Board of Governors.

The Galesburg, Ill., native is a graduate of the University of Notre Dame. Weber and his wife Claudia reside in Nashville.

TERRY CRISP COLOR ANALYST

Entering his 14th season with the Predators, Terry Crisp provides the color commentary on the club's television and radio broadcasts and helps comprise one of the most well-known broadcast duos in the league. He regularly contributes insight to the Predators' website and local sports talk radio and worked as a studio analyst for Canada's TSN during the 2000, 2002 and 2003 IIHF World Championships.

A part of the Predators' Emmy-winning broadcasts in 2003, 2008 and 2010, Crisp served as a color analyst for FOX Sports during the 1998-99 season and during the 1998 and 1999 Stanley Cup Finals, and has served in a similar capacity for TSN in past years.

Crisp posted 201 points (67g-134a) in 536 games during his 11 seasons in the NHL as a player for the Boston Bruins, St. Louis Blues, New York Islanders and Philadelphia Flyers. He has won three Stanley Cup Championships, two as a player with the Flyers (1974 and 1975) and one as a coach with Calgary (1989), and he is one of only 14 people to have won the Cup as both player and head coach. The Parry Sound, Ont., native has a unique perspective on expansion teams: he was a player with the inaugural editions of the St. Louis Blues in 1967 and the New York Islanders in 1972.

Crisp was the head coach of the Tampa Bay Lightning from the franchise's inception in 1992 through October 1997, coaching 391 games. He held the record for most games coached by an expansion franchise's first coach until Nashville head coach Barry Trotz broke the mark in 2003. In the 2004 NHL Stanley Cup Finals, the Lightning defeated the Flames – the team he coached to the Cup in 1989. Crisp also served as the assistant coach of the silver medal-winning Canadian team at the 1992 Winter Olympic Games in Albertville, France.

Terry and his wife Sheila reside in Nashville. The Crisps have three children – sons Tony and Jeff, and daughter Caley.

MANAGEMENT & STAFF
BROADCASTERS

MARK HOWARD RINKSIDE REPORTER

Mark Howard enters his fourth season as a rinkside reporter for all Predators' home games on FOX Sports Tennessee in 2011-12. Joining Pete Weber and Terry Crisp on the broadcast, Howard provides player and coach interviews during pre- and post-game coverage as well as intermissions.

Howard hosts the award-winning Wakeup Zone on WGFX 104.5 The Zone which airs weekdays from 6-10 a.m. He also does a radio pre- and postgame show for Titans Radio and has worked as a television host of TSSAA for the State High School football and basketball championships since 2004.

Prior to hosting The Wakeup Zone, Howard was a sports anchor at WTVF-TV (CBS) in Nashville and worked for 103.3 WKDF doing morning sports from 1997-2002. The West Hartford, Conn., native who also worked in television in Evansville, Ind., from 1983-86, has called action for Triple-A baseball in Wichita and Evansville, and college hockey at Cornell. He graduated from Ithaca College in upstate New York in 1980 with a degree in history and political science.

Mark is single and has a 9-year-old son Jack.

STU GRIMSON RADIO COLOR ANALYST

Stu Grimson enters his fourth season as a color analyst on some of the Predators Radio Network broadcasts in 2011-12. Grimson, who played in 30 games with the Predators during the 2001-02 season, posted 17 goals, 22 assists and 2113 penalty minutes in 729 career games with Calgary, Chicago, Anaheim, Detroit, Hartford, Carolina, Los Angeles and Nashville from 1988-2002.

After retiring from hockey following the 2001-02 season, Grimson returned to school and received his law degree from the University of Memphis in December of 2005. The Kamloops, British Columbia native then went to work as in-house counsel for the NHLPA for two years before returning to Nashville where he currently works as an attorney with Kay, Griffin, Enkema & Brothers PLLC.

Stu resides in Franklin with his wife Pam, their three daughters Erin, Hannah and Jayne and son Kristjan.

TOM CALLAHAN RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Tom Callahan enters his fourth season with the Nashville Predators broadcast team in 2011-12. Callahan will continue to assume radio play-by-play and co-hosting duties on the Predators Radio Network for the 65 Predators games aired on FOX Sports Tennessee, while contributing to the other 17 broadcasts as a rink-side reporter for all games that are not televised (or are televised exclusively by a national rightsholder). For those games, the 13-season team of Pete Weber (play-by-play) and Terry Crisp (color commentator) will be in the radio booth.

In addition to broadcasting the games, Callahan helps grow and maintain the Predators Radio Network, developing and implementing programs and tools to expand the regional fan base through Tennessee, Kentucky, Georgia and Alabama. He also contributes regularly to nashvillepredators.com, the team's publications and serves as a face in the community for the organization.

Callahan came to Nashville from the American Hockey League's Peoria Rivermen, where he served as director of communications in 2007-08. Prior to working in Peoria, the Lackawanna, N.Y., native spent four seasons with the Augusta Lynx of the ECHL, and three seasons with the Elmira Jackals of the then-United Hockey League, serving in similar positions. He also has experience in then-Western Professional Hockey League (now Central Hockey League) and in minor league baseball.

Callahan, who is a 1998 graduate of St. John Fisher College in Rochester, N.Y., resides in Nashville with his wife Meaghan.

BROADCAST PARTNERS

FOX SPORTS TENNESSEE

The Nashville Predators and FOX Sports Tennessee enter their 14th season as partners in 2011-12, the second of a four-year deal that sees FS Tennessee and sister station SportsSouth televise an all-time high 68 regular-season games, with the total increasing to 70 games in 2013-14. Predators' telecasts on the networks reach more than four million cable and satellite households across Tennessee, Georgia, Kentucky and northern portions of Mississippi and Alabama.

The FOX Sports Tennessee broadcast duo of play-by-play announcer Pete Weber and analyst Terry Crisp enter their 13th season calling Predators' action.

Lexus Predators LIVE returns following each game telecast on FOX Sports Tennessee, and features highlights, analysis and interviews. Predators players and personnel will also be featured in FOX Sports Tennessee original programs Predators Snapshot and Under the Lights.

The regional sports networks serving the Southeast – FOX Sports South, FOX Sports Carolinas and FOX Sports Tennessee – collectively reach more than 12.9 million cable and satellite television households in seven states across the Southeast and are the television home of the Atlanta Braves, Carolina Hurricanes, Charlotte Bobcats, Memphis Grizzlies and the Nashville Predators, as well as the Atlantic Coast Conference and the Southeastern Conference. SportSouth reaches more than 10 million homes in six Southeastern states and is the television home of the Atlanta Braves and Southern Conference. SportSouth also offers expanded coverage of the University of Georgia, University of South Carolina and University of Tennessee. Combined, the four networks produce more than 800 live local events each year.

PREDATORS RADIO NETWORK

In the summer of 2011, the Predators announced a multi-year extension with Cromwell Group Inc., that sees the Predators and their ancillary programming serve as the centerpiece of 102.5 The Game's new all-sports format. Radio play-by-play announcer Tom Callahan, who returns for his fourth season behind the microphone, will call the action for the club's radio-only regular season games, with former Preds forward Stu Grimson joining as color analyst for most home games. For the Predators remaining contests, he will join the longtime team of Pete Weber (play-by-play) and Terry Crisp (color analyst) to conduct interviews and provide reports around the arena.

Owned by the Nashville-based Cromwell Group – which also owns 102.9 WBUZ The Buzz and WQZQ 102.1/830 AM The Light – The Game will carry select preseason, all regular-season and all postseason Predators games. This marks the second consecutive season that all Predators regular season and playoff contests will be aired on the same station – with all games broadcasting on sister station 102.9 WBUZ The Buzz last season. These games will include a minimum 30-minute pregame show as well as an hour long postgame show. All postgame shows following home games originate from Bridgestone Arena's Patrón Platinum Club and will be open to all ticketed fans in attendance.

The Cromwell Group, Inc. is a privately held company with its corporate office in Nashville, Tennessee. The company manages 22 radio stations (6 AM and 16 FM) in five markets (Decatur (4), Effingham (3), Mattoon (3), Vandalia (2), Owensboro/Tell City (7), Nashville (3), and in four states (Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee). WBUZ has been in operation since 1999 as Nashville's premiere rock station, 102.9 The Buzz.

Several regional affiliates complete the broadcast radio network of the Nashville Predators during the hockey season, as games are broadcast throughout the state of Tennessee, as well as parts of Kentucky and Alabama. These affiliates are as follows:

BRIDGESTONE ARENA

ARENA INFORMATION & POWERS MANAGEMENT

Powers Management
Bridgestone Arena • 501 Broadway
(615) 770-2000 • Fax (615) 770-2010

Bridgestone Arena opened in December 1996 and has hosted more than 12 million guests. The one million-square foot facility is Nashville's No. 1 venue for large-scale musical productions, as well as one of the nation's most highly-acclaimed entertainment and sports venues. Seating capacity is approximately 20,000 for concerts, 19,395 for basketball and 17,113 for Nashville Predators games. Bridgestone Arena is operated by facility management company Powers Management, which took over the day-to-day operation and management on July 1, 2000. Inheriting the building's original management contract from Leisure Management, Inc., Powers Management is retained by the Nashville Sports Authority and Metro Nashville.

Formerly known as the Nashville Arena, the Gaylord Entertainment Center and the Sommet Center, the building became Bridgestone Arena on February 23, 2010 after Bridgestone Americas Inc., which is headquartered in Nashville, entered into multi-year naming-rights and marketing partnership with the Predators and Powers Management. Bridgestone Americas, Inc. (BSAM) is the U.S. subsidiary of Bridgestone Corporation, the world's largest tire and rubber company. BSAM and its subsidiaries develop, manufacture and market a wide range of Bridgestone, Firestone and associate brand tires to address the needs of a broad range of customers, including consumers, automotive and commercial vehicle original equipment manufacturers, and those in the agricultural, forestry and mining industries. The companies are also engaged in retreading operations throughout the Western Hemisphere and produce air springs, roofing materials, and industrial fibers and textiles. The BSAM family of companies also operates the world's largest chain of automotive tire and service centers.

The entrance to Bridgestone Arena is positioned on the corner of Broadway and Fifth Avenue facing the Ryman Auditorium, the original home of the Grand Ole Opry. The architects designed this as a tribute to Nashville's music roots.

The development of the arena exemplifies the city's changing persona and has been a catalyst for other projects in the surrounding area including the Country Music Hall of Fame, the downtown public library, the Frist Center for the Visual Arts, the Schermerhorn Symphony Center, a number of downtown living options and, in 2013, the Music City Center, a new convention center under construction across from the Arena on Demonbreun Street.

Initiated by Nashville Mayor Phil Bredesen and approved by the Metro/Davidson County Council in 1993, Bridgestone Arena hosts, on average, more than 150 events each year, ranging from Predators games to concerts, family shows and community events. Additionally, the facility hosts a large number of conventions and business conferences.

In 2010-11 Bridgestone Arena ranked sixth in the United States and 17th in the world for concert attendance, according to international trade publication Pollstar. This was Bridgestone Arena's highest ever year-end ranking and its first year-end inside the Top Ten. December 2010 was record setting for Bridgestone Arena, with a building-high 334,917 guests walking through the doors for 22 separate events. Seven Nashville Predators home games and 15 concerts created the most attended month in the history of Bridgestone Arena.

A report issued in 2004 estimated that Bridgestone Arena had an economic impact of more than $618 million on downtown Nashville from 1997-2003, and Bridgestone Arena events annually are responsible for more than $100 million of economic impact. Four days of the NCAA or SEC men's basketball tournament means more than $6 million of economic impact on the community, while a full season of Predators hockey brings approximately $80 million in impact.

In addition to serving as the home of the Nashville Predators, Bridgestone Arena annually hosts the CMT and CMA Music Awards, broadcasted live to national audiences. Since October 2009, the venue has served as the final stop on Brooks & Dunn's "Last Rodeo" Tour, a stop for Paul McCartney's North American tour, nine sold-out Garth Brooks' concerts all benefitting flood relief and three other star-laden benefit concerts. "Nashville Rising" raised $2.2 million for flood relief efforts in June 2010, while "We're All for the Hall" concerts – hosted by Keith Urban – were held in October 2009 and 2010 as fundraisers for the Country Music Hall of Fame.

After successfully holding the event in 2010, Bridgestone Arena will also host the 2013, 2015, 2016 and 2019 Southeastern Conference Men's Basketball Tournaments, giving Nashville more SEC men's basketball tournaments than any other city. It will also host the 2014 NCAA Women's Final Four, the 2011 and 2012 SEC Women's Basketball Tournaments, and the first and second rounds of the 2012 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament.

Featured performers at Bridgestone Arena have included Beyonce, Coldplay, Justin Timberlake, Elton John, Billy Joel, Metallica, Celine Dion, Simon & Garfunkel, Bruce Springsteen, Eric Clapton, The Rolling Stones, Neil Diamond, Tina Turner, Alan Jackson, Kenny Chesney and Lady Gaga as well as Tim McGraw and Faith Hill.

NASHVILLE PREDATORS FOUNDATION

Established in 1998, the Nashville Predators Foundation strives to meet the educational, social, health and cultural needs of our community by offering unique resources and financial support to local youth-oriented organizations. Through several fundraisers held throughout the year, the Predators Foundation has awarded more than $3 million to Nashville and Middle Tennessee-area charities and community service organizations since its creation.

NASHVILLE PREDATORS BRENT PETERSON CELEBRITY GOLF CLASSIC

This season the Nashville Predators Foundation and the Peterson Foundation for Parkinson's combined golf tournaments to form the Nashville Predators' Brent Peterson Celebrity Golf Classic presented by First Tennessee, Franklin American Mortgage and PEAK Performance on September 10. Petey's Preds Party was held the night prior at Bridgestone Arena with entertainment, dinner and an auction. The golf tournament took place at Vanderbilt Legend's Club and the winner of the tournament was awarded the Dr. Mac Cup. In 2004, the tournament's name was changed in honor of the late Dr. James McPherson, who served as the Predators' dentist from 1998-2004. The 2010 tournament raised more than $60,000 for the Nashville Predators Foundation. nashvillepredators.com/golf.

GNASHVEGAS CASINO NIGHT & AUCTION

In past years, Hockey Tonk, Hollywood, Hawaiian Luau and Disco Ball and have been themes of the Unmasked Ball, a black-tie, fundraising affair featuring Predators players, coaching staff and management. Last season the Foundation turned Bridgestone Arena into a casino with players serving as guest dealers and local restaurants providing gourmet food. The Unmasked Ball features a silent auction and has raised more than $1 million for the Foundation since its inception in 1998. nashvillepredators.com/gala

WINE FESTIVAL & TASTING

The Predators Foundation held their inaugural Wine Festival & Tasting in 2006. The 2011 event consisted of a wine tasting on the floor of Bridgestone Arena and featured samples from more than 225 wines, beer and liquor. Fish & Co. Restaurant and Raw Bar and Watermark Restaurant provided heavy hors d'oeuvres. The evening included Predators personnel, an extensive silent auction and photo opportunities with Predators mascot GNASH. This event raises more than $50,000 annually.

The 2011 event also featured a VIP Dinner & Tasting hosted by Corey Beck, Director of Winemaking at Francis Coppola Winery in the Patrón Platinum Club that included a five-course wine dinner featuring Francis Coppola wines. nashvillepredators.com/wine.

DEX SCORE & WIN

Last season the Nashville Predators Foundation and DEX Imaging and Mailing teamed up to raise more than $30,000 through the DEX Score and Win program. Every time a Predator scored a goal or recorded a goaltending win in 2010-11, DEX made a donation to the Predators Foundation that was distributed to 11 Middle Tennessee charities. For every goal scored by a forward or a win by a goaltender, DEX contributed $100. The contribution was $150 for goals scored by a defenseman and there was a $200 bonus for hat tricks and shutouts.

The 2010-11 campaign marked the sixth season of the DEX Score and Win Program. The program was launched midway through the 2005-06 season and brought in $18,750 that year. The program has now combined for more than $175,000 over the past six seasons.

GAME NIGHT & SILENT AUCTION

The Predators Foundation hosts a silent auction table at each Predators home game behind section 106/107 on the main concourse. Also at the auction table at various games throughout the season, the Predators Foundation sells autographed pucks as part of a fundraiser called Holiday Mystery Puck. For a $25 donation to the Foundation, fans will have the opportunity to select a wrapped, themed puck autographed by a Predators player. Additionally, Predators Foundation online auctions are hosted throughout the season on nhl.com.

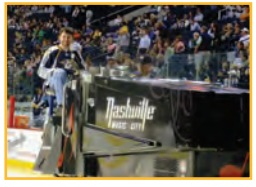
COMMUNITY RELATIONS / PREDATORS FOUNDATION

BIRTHDAY & SPECIAL MEGATRON MESSAGES

For a donation to the Predators Foundation, fans have an opportunity to put birthday, anniversary and engagement announcements on the Megatron during Predators home games. In-game center-hung scoreboard rates are $50 for a birthday announcement and $100 for an engagement announcement (based on game availability). To schedule, please visit nashvillepredators.com/scoreboard or contact Community Relations at (615) 770-2331.

IN-GAME ZAMBONI RIDES/ PRE-GAME VISIT TO THE PENALTY BOX



For a $100 donation to the Nashville Predators Foundation, Predators fans can ride the Zamboni or have the opportunity to sit in the visiting team's penalty box during the Nashville Predators' pregame skate. To schedule, please visit nashvillepredators.com/zamboniride or nashvillepredators.com/penaltybox, or contact Community Relations at (615) 770-2331.

DONATION REQUESTS

The Nashville Predators are committed to positively influencing the community far beyond the game. The team's community relations department assists non-profit charities and other businesses to raise money for their own causes. To request a non-monetary donation for your event, please visit nashvillepredators.com/donations.

NASHVILLE PREDATORS FOUNDATION GRANT RECIPIENTS

In 2010-11, the Nashville Predators Foundation distributed more than 100 grants totaling more than $325,000 to Nashville and Middle Tennessee-based community service and charitable organizations. Each year, the Predators Foundation Board selects four Feature Charities. These organizations receive exclusive opportunities throughout the season including in-arena drives, Predators participation in events, tickets to home games, recognition in team publications as well as other unique opportunities. The 2011-12 season's Feature Charities are Backfield in Motion, Cottage Cove Ministries, Hands on Nashville and National Wheelcats.

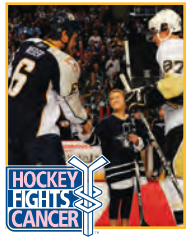
GRANT APPLICATIONS

The Predators Foundation places priority on giving back to the local communities where its players, employees and fans live and work. Foundation grants range from $500 to a maximum of $10,000. Organizations must have a 501(c)3 status to apply. To request application information please email Rebecca King at rking@nashvillepredators.com.

JACK DILLER EDUCATION AWARD

Each year the Predators Foundation awards four high school seniors the Jack Diller Education Award in the amount of $2,500 each. Applicants must reside within Middle Tennessee and excel in academics, athletics and volunteerism. The four winning students are recognized during a Predators home game. For more information, please contact the Nashville Predators Foundation at (615) 770-2331 or visit the Nashville Predators website at nashvillepredators.com/community.

HOCKEY FIGHTS CANCER



Each October the Nashville Predators host a Hockey Fights Cancer Night at a game and an additional benefit night later in the season. These We Care for Kids nights, benefitting Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital, include a portion of tickets sold, 100 percent of the silent-auction proceeds donated back to the Children's Hospital. Donations are also collected at all Bridgestone Arena entrances before the game and throughout the building during the game. Patients from Children's Hospital are invited to attend the game, ride on the Zamboni, take part in a postgame meet-and-greet with players, and participate in the Zebra's Care, a charitable organization run by the NHL Official's Association.

In August 2011, the Nashville Predators presented a check for $181,000 to Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt. $125,000 of the donation will go to the Nashville Predators Foundation Pediatric Cancer Research Fund which was endowed in 2010.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

The Predators are committed to the underlying team mission to "work hard, play hard, and provide outrageous customer and community service." Every member of the Predators organization can be found giving back to the community throughout the season - from ownership and players to management and staff.

This commitment to the community is seen through various initiatives. A few of the Predators' 2010-11 initiatives included Second Harvest Food Bank collections, the Marine Corps Toys for Tots Drive, Salvation Army Kettle Drive, monthly hospital visits, a Thanksgiving Turkey giveaway, a holiday party for kids, the Teacher of the Month Program and the NHL's Hockey Fights Cancer awareness month (October).

PIPER PROGRAM -

(Predators Incentive Program for Education and Rewards)
Presented by JACKSON

The PIPER program is designed to bring together Jackson National Life Insurance Company, our regional school systems, their students, and the Nashville Predators. As part of this program, Predators tickets to 12 home games will be donated to local schools by Jackson National Life Insurance Company and distributed to students and teachers on a targeted basis for achieving academic and related goals. A PIPER program participant will be invited to ride the Zamboni at each of the 12 games.

STICK TO READING = SUCCEEDING

Stick to Reading = Succeeding is reading program that encourages young students to read. Each month Predators players and GNASH visit local schools or public libraries, read books to kids and encourage students to make reading a lifelong habit.

STICK 2 READING =SUCCEEDING

TEACHER OF THE MONTH

The Teacher of the Month program recognizes teachers in the greater Nashville area for their accomplishments in the classroom. The Predators select teachers based upon the principal's portrayal of how the teacher has impacted students, school faculty and others around them. The Predators target a different county each month and distribute applications to that district's principals. Each month, the winning teacher receives a surprise visit from GNASH, a certificate, tickets to a Predators game and recognition on the Predators website. For more information, please contact Community Relations at (615) 770-2331.

PENCIL PARTNER PROGRAM

The Pencil Partner Program partners the Nashville Predators with Hume-Fogg High School and Lockeland Design Center Elementary School to provide unique opportunities to local youth. High school students have the opportunity to be a sportswriter for a day, where they watch a game from the press box, attend the postgame press conference with Head Coach Barry Trotz and write a follow-up game story for Predators website. Other opportunities in the program include GNASH welcoming students to school on the first day after summer vacation, complimentary tickets, donated autographed memorabilia, participation in hockey clinics and the opportunity for students to volunteer at Predators' fundraising events.

FRIDAY FUNDAY

Throughout the season Predators players' wives, girlfriends and GNASH participate in the Friday FunDay program by visiting local elementary schools on a Friday to read books to the students and talk about the importance of education. Schools receive a donation of books and school supplies from the Nashville Predators.

PLAYERS' WIVES INITIATIVES

Throughout the 2011-12 season, the players' wives organize charitable drives to benefit the families of Nashville and Middle Tennessee. Fans are encouraged to bring donations during these games.

TROTZ & POILE'S CONTRIBUTIONS

Head Coach Barry Trotz and his wife Kim have provided a $500 donation to My Friend's House for every Predators home win since the start of the 1999-2000 season. Together, they have donated more than $227,000.

Predators General Manager David Poile and his wife Elizabeth donate to Operation Homefront (which provides emergency assistance and morale to our U.S. Troops), USA Hockey and the Peterson for Parkinson's Foundation for every Predators victory.

PLAYERS' CHARITABLE INVOLVEMENT

Nashville Predators players, management and GNASH made more than 250 appearances in Middle Tennessee during the 2010-11 season. Over the years, players have donated game tickets and have visited several non-profit organizations throughout the Nashville community. Several organizations have benefited from the Predators' charitable ticket initiatives including: Against the Grain, Gilda's Club, Girls on the Run, Homework Hotline, PENCIL Foundation, Rejoice Ministries and Ronald McDonald House.

The Nashville Predators continue their efforts to enhance the awareness and opportunity of youth hockey in Middle Tennessee. The Preds have created partnerships with local youth hockey associations and assist with fundraising, hockey education and additional ice time to promote the growth of the sport at the grassroots level.

The Nashville Predators also assist area youth hockey organizations by providing coaches' clinics, players' clinics, ice time at Bridgestone Arena and funding for uniforms. Area youth players are also frequently featured during intermissions at Predators' home games.

STREET PRIDE

The NHL's league-wide street youth hockey program, NHL Street, serves local community centers and schools by providing this free athletic and educational program.

The NHL and the Nashville Predators provide street hockey sticks, pucks, nets and protective goalie equipment, as well as start-up hockey instruction for coaching and administration. The Predators also provide informative manuals for staff and participants, and follow-ups with program centers and player/coach clinics.

There are currently 40 youth facilities that participate in the Street Pride program including Boys & Girls Clubs throughout Middle Tennessee, Metro Parks and Recreation and the YMCA of Middle Tennessee. This free grassroots hockey development program emphasizes that all a kid needs to play hockey are sneakers, breaking down any socio-economic barriers associated with the sport.

GET OUT AND LEARN!

The Get Out And Learn! (G.O.A.L!) program introduces the game of hockey to young, aspiring Nashville Predators, without the financial commitment typically associated with the sport. This free, introductory program, designed for ages 5 to 8 with no prior experience, is offered in weekly sessions throughout the year at local rinks. The Predators provide all necessary equipment, ice time and instruction, making the program ideal for any family. The Preds are dedicated to supporting the development of youth hockey at all levels and recognize the need for local skating facilities to be accessible for beginners to help grow the sport, beginning at younger ages. Since its inception in the fall of 2006, more than 1,500 kids have graduated from G.O.A.L!

TAKING HOCKEY TO THE STREETS

"Taking Hockey to the Streets" is a grassroots marketing initiative in which members of the Predators organization make unannounced visits to neighborhoods where kids routinely gather to play street hockey. The visit includes a street hockey game, giveaways for the young players and routine appearances by players, coaches and Preds mascot GNASH.

HOCKEY RULES presented by UnitedHealthcare

Hockey Rules presented by UnitedHealthcare is a free, traveling, interactive hockey experience that aims to educate elementary and middle school students on basic hockey skills and the Nashville Predators. During the school year, Hockey Rules visits more than 25 schools, reaching more than 3,500 students. The Predators provide all necessary equipment and instruction at no cost. The program continues into the summer as the Hockey Rules Summerfest Tour presented by UnitedHealthcare travels to youth camps, educating young fans on the sport of hockey.

BLUELINER OF THE GAME

An opportunity to experience the excitement from ice level offered as a silent auction item during Predators home games. Youth hockey players get the opportunity of a lifetime as their name is called during the starting lineup, they skate to the blue line, then stand alongside their favorite Predators player during the National Anthem.

PROGRAMMING
YOUTH HOCKEY &
FAN DEVELOPMENT

PREDATORS HOCKEY SCHOOL

The Predators host a hockey school each July in Nashville which is open to boys and girls ages 8-14. Youth attending the hockey school are challenged daily with more than two hours of ice time, intensive dry-land conditioning, video analysis and "chalk talk" sessions. Hockey School emphasizes the basic fundamentals of hockey – stickhandling, power skating, shooting and passing.

Other features of the camp include daily lectures on nutrition, injury prevention, equipment maintenance and perspectives from the Predators scouting and coaching staffs.

The Predators also host the "Little Preds" Hockey School, an evening summertime camp at A-Game Sportsplex in Franklin. The school is offered to children ages 4-7.

COACHES CORNER

In an ongoing effort to foster and improve youth hockey opportunities in Middle Tennessee, the Nashville Predators offer support to youth hockey coaches at all levels. Through partnerships with USA Hockey, the Predators are able to present tools that any coach can use to improve his or her knowledge, and in turn, the team's on-ice performance.

PREDATORS CUP

The Predators Cup is the annual Tennessee State High School Hockey Championship tournament. Established during the 1999-00 season, it serves as a platform to highlight the top high school hockey teams in the state and is hosted by the Nashville Predators each spring at Bridgestone Arena. Since the inaugural tournament, nine teams from Middle Tennessee, three teams from Memphis and one team from Knoxville have won the Predators Cup.

JERSEY SPONSORSHIP

As an ongoing partnership, the Nashville Predators partner with local ice hockey leagues as their official jersey provider. More than 700 youth hockey players on 48 teams at Centennial Sportsplex in Nashville and A-Game Sportsplex in Franklin wear the Predators logo. When the sponsorship started during the 2008-09 season, it marked the first time in club history that the Predator logo was worn by area hockey associations, strengthening the relationship between the youth hockey community and the NHL Club.

SKATE AT BRIDGESTONE ARENA

Since the Predators inaugural season in 1998-99, thousands of youth hockey players have had the opportunity to skate on the same surface as NHL players. As a ticket fundraiser program, "Mites on Ice" is offered to hockey teams ages 9-and-under for the chance to skate in front of 17,000-plus fans during intermissions at select Predator home games. Adult and youth hockey teams can also skate on the same as ice as the pros through the "Play Where the Preds Play" program." Teams have the opportunity play an exhibition game at Bridgestone Arena before or after a Nashville home game to raise money for their team. In 2008, the team announced a joint venture with the Greater Nashville Area Scholastic Hockey League (GNASH) that will see area high school teams play at Bridgestone Arena as the featured High School Game of the Week.

NASHVILLE JR. PREDATORS

During the 2009-10 season, the Nashville Predators teamed up with the Greater Nashville Minor Hockey Association to form the NHL club's first minor hockey affiliate, the Nashville Jr. Predators. This youth hockey "AA" travel program fields a Minor and Major team at the following age divisions: Mite (8-and-under), Squirt (ages 8-10), Peewee (ages 10-12), Bantam (ages 12-14), Midget (14-18). ADMIRALS COACHING STAFF

KIRK MULLER HEAD COACH

Kirk Muller was named the 18th coach in Milwaukee Admirals history on June 27, 2011 and enters his first season with the organization in 2011-12. Prior to joining the Admirals, Muller spent five seasons as an assistant coach with the Montreal Canadiens, helping them reach the playoffs in each of his last four seasons (2008-11) and advance to the Eastern Conference Finals in 2010.

Known as an excellent communicator, motivator and an outstanding strategist, Muller worked extensively with the Habs penalty killing unit during his tenure in Montreal, helping it finish in the top half of the League in each season under his watch, including a seventh-place ranking in 2010-11 and a perfect 21-for-21 performance during the 2011 Stanley Cup Playoffs. During his second season behind the Montreal bench in 2007-08, the club posted its best record since the 1988-89 club that advanced to the Stanley Cup Finals, going an Eastern Conference best 47-25-10 (105 points).

Prior to joining the Montreal staff on June 20, 2006, Muller spent one season as head coach of the Queen's University Golden Gaels (Canadian University) in his hometown of Kingston. He also served as an assistant coach on Canada's entries at the 2005 Lotto Cup Tournament, winning a gold medal, and the 2006 Under-18 World Championships where he coached the likes of future NHLers John Tavares, Brandon Sutter and Jonathan Bernier.

The Kingston, Ont., native was selected second overall by the New Jersey Devils in the 1984 Entry Draft, and proceeded to play 19 National Hockey League seasons with six teams (New Jersey, Montreal, NY Islanders, Toronto, Florida and Dallas) from 1984 until his retirement in 2003, amassing 959 points (357g-602a) in 1,349 regular-season games (42nd all-time) and 69 points (33g-36a) in 127 playoff games.

Known for his intensity and strong two-way play, "Captain Kirk" posted five consecutive 25-plus goal seasons during his seven seasons in New Jersey with the high point coming in 1987-88 when he set a franchise record for points by a center (37g-57a-94pts) and helped the Devils reach the Eastern Conference Finals. Muller was traded to Montreal prior to the 1991-92 season, then won the Stanley Cup in his second campaign with the Canadiens, matching his career-best goal, assist and point totals from 1987-88, then amassing 17 points (10g-7a) – including the Cup-clinching goal – in 20 contests during the postseason run.

The nine-time 20-goal scorer and five-time 30-goal man played in six NHL All-Star Games (1985, 1986, 1988, 1990, 1992, 1993) and served as captain for both the Devils (1987-91) and Canadiens (1994-95. He also represented Canada at four World Championships (1985, 1986, 1987, 1989) and at both the 1984 Olympics and World Junior Championships.

Muller and his wife, Stacey, have four daughters – twins Brittney and Kourtney, Bryelle and Kira.

IAN HERBERS ASSISTANT COACH

Ian Herbers enters his third season as assistant coach of the Milwaukee Admirals in 2011-12 after helping them win their fourth West Division title in the past eight years in 2010-11. The Admirals' 44-22-14 record (102 points) was also tops in the Western Conference and third-best in the AHL, extending their consecutive 40 win/90-plus point season streak to eight – a league record. The Jasper, Alta., native's primary duties include overseeing a defensive corps which gave the third-fewest goals in the AHL in 2010-11 (194) – and pre-scouting opponents.

Prior to joining Milwaukee for the 2009-10 campaign, Herbers spent two seasons as head coach of the ECHL's Johnstown Chiefs. With Herbers at the helm, Johnstown posted a 73-60-11 record from 2007-09, which included a Kelly Cup playoff berth in 2008. Prior to his time with the Chiefs, Herbers spent three seasons with the Saginaw Spirit of the Ontario Hockey League – two as an associate head coach (2005-07) and one as an assistant (2004-05). The Spirit advanced to the OHL Playoffs in each of Herbers' final two seasons with the club, compiling an 80-51-5 record in that span. He started his coaching career as an assistant with the American Hockey League's San Antonio Rampage in 2003-04.

The 44-year-old Herbers ended his 12-season professional career in 2003-04. A 10th-round selection (190th overall) of the Buffalo Sabres in the 1987 Entry Draft, he played 65 career National Hockey League games with the Edmonton Oilers (1993-94), Tampa Bay Lightning (1999-2000) and the New York Islanders (1999-2000), totaling five assists and 79 penalty minutes. He also won a pair of league titles with the AHL's Cape Breton Oilers in 1993 and the International Hockey League's Detroit Vipers in 1997.

Herbers played 586 games in parts of 10 seasons in the AHL and IHL with the Oilers, Vipers and Cleveland Lumberjacks from 1992-2001, amassing 147 points (40g-107a) and 1,113 penalty minutes. He also played professionally in the United Kingdom for two seasons prior to finishing his playing career with the Flint Generals of the United Hockey League.

Herbers played four seasons at the University of Alberta from 1988-92, winning three CWUAA titles and captaining the Golden Bears to a University Cup title as Canadian Interuniversity Sport national champions as a senior.

CAREER NOTES: The ninth of 43 players selected with the final pick of an entry draft (modern era, since 1969) and go on to play in the NHL. Is only one of three players picked last overall to play at least 100 NHL games and score at least 20 goals... Enters 2011-12 tied for sixth in game-winning goals since the start of the 2009-10 campaign (13)... One of 11 NHLers to post at least 260 shots on goal in each of the last two seasons.

2010-11: Became the second Nashville draft pick to record back-to-back 20-goal seasons, ranking second on the team in the category (21)... Tied for third on the team in points (48)... Set career highs in assists (27) and penalty minutes (47)... Paced the club in game-winning goals (5) for the second consecutive season... Tied for second among Nashville skaters in power-play goals (6)... Led Nashville in shots on goal for the second consecutive season (265), ranking 19th in the NHL. It was the second-highest total in franchise history... Nashville went 13-2-2 when he scored a goal... Paced club forwards in average power play ice time (2:45)... Collected his 100th career NHL point with an assist on April 2 vs. Detroit... Posted a franchise record, and tied a 2010-11 NHL season high, in shots on goal in a game on Dec. 28 vs. Dallas (14)... Finished the season with 14 points (3g-11a) in the final 10 games of the season, including five multi-point performances.
PLAYOFFS: Set franchise records for shots in a playoff season (43) and in a playoff series (29) in the WCQ vs. Anaheim... Recorded points (2g-1a) in three of Nashville's first four postseason games.

2009-10: Became the first Nashville draft pick to score 30 goals for the club, leading the team and registering the fourth-highest total in franchise history in the category (30)... Tied a franchise record and tied for second in the League in game-winning goals (8)... Led the team in power-play goals (10)... Tied for fifth in the NHL in third-period goals (16) and tied for ninth in road goals (17)... Tied for the team lead in points (51)... Set a franchise record for shots in a season (275)... Experienced a 28-goal increase from 2008-09, making him just the second player since 2001 to experience such an increase... Had the fewest NHL games experience (108) and the lowest average ice time (15:41) among the NHL's Top 20 goal scorers... Paced all Nashville skaters in plus/minus rating (+18), and tied for 11th among League forwards in road plus/minus rating (+11)... Named NHL's Third Star of the Week on Dec. 21 after tying for the NHL lead in both points (7) and goals (4) for the week... Appeared in his 100th career game on March 21 at St. Louis... Played in all four of Sweden's games at the 2010 Olympics in Vancouver... Scored his first Olympic goal in the quarterfinals vs. Slovakia, with his hockey idol, Peter Forsberg, setting the goal up.
PLAYOFFS: Missed four games due to a broken hand... Made his playoff debut in Game One, and posted his first career playoff point/assist in Game Six.

2008-09: Split his first season in North America between Nashville and Milwaukee (AHL)... Started the season with the Predators, and was recalled on two other occasions (Feb. 3 and March 17)... Posted his first career assist/multi-point game (2a) on Oct. 25 vs. Los Angeles... Ranked third on the Admirals in goals (17) and tied for fourth on the club in points (35), despite playing only 49 AHL games... Also ranked third on Milwaukee in power-play goals (8) and second in shots (161)... Appeared in all 11 of Milwaukee's 2009 Calder Cup Playoff contests, tying for second on the team in points (8) and goals (4).

EUROPE/AMATEUR: Tied for 12th in the Swedish Elite League and led Djurgarden in goals (18) in 2007-08... Tied for sixth in the league and led his club in power-play goals (11) in 2007-08... Ranked fourth on Djurgarden in points (30) and paced the club in shots (174) in 2007-08... Led Sweden and tied for second overall in goals (6) at the 2008 World Championships in Quebec City/Halifax... Named Rookie of the Year in the Swedish Elite League in 2006-07 after leading junior players with 23 goals. The goal total broke a record previously held by Peter Forsberg for most goals by a junior player in Swedish Elite League history... Tied for Djurgardens team lead in goals and ranked second on the club in scoring (23g-11a-34pts) in 2006-07... Joined Djurgarden's junior team for the 2007 post-season and tallied seven points (2g-5a) in seven games... Represented Sweden at both the 2007 World Junior (U-20) Championships in Sweden and the 2007 World Championships in Russia... Played the 2005-06 season primarily with the Djurgarden Elitserien team... Played for Sweden at the 2005 U-18 World Championships, earning a bronze medal.

BACKGROUND: Grew up idolizing former Predator Peter Forsberg, and lists tennis star Roger Federer as his favorite athlete in another sport... Other favorites include Spain (vacation spot)... Lists Robert Nilsson of the Edmonton Oilers as his best friend in hockey... Nickname: "Horny."

TRANSACTIONS: July 31, 2005 – Nashville's seventh choice, 230th overall (seventh round), in 2005 Entry Draft.

CAREER NOTES: Has scored 78 goals since the start of the 2006-07 season, tied for the most by an NHL defenseman with Washington's Mike Green... Ranked first on the franchise's all-time goals by a defenseman list (80), passing Kimmo Timonen with a power-play goal in overtime on March 17 vs. Boston. Second only to Timonen in points by a Nashville d-man (214), and 10th among all skaters in franchise history in both goals and points... Tied for fourth on the franchise's power-play goals list (37), and is seventh on the club's game-winning goals list (15)... Third in franchise OT goals (4), and tied for fourth in points (7)... Was named the fifth captain in franchise history – and first homegrown captain – on July 8, 2010.

2010-11: 2011 Norris Trophy runner-up in what was the closest race for first place (Nicklas Lidstrom: 736, Weber: 727) since 1996 (Chicago's Chris Chelios: 408, Boston's Ray Bourque, 403)... A 2010-11 NHL First-Team All-Star, the first Predator named to the First All-Star Team... Tied for fourth among NHL defensemen in goals (16) and 10th in points (48)... Tied for sixth at the position in game-winning goals (6) and ninth in power-play goals (6)... Twelve of his 16 goals came on home ice, tied for first among League d-men... Nashville went 13-2-1 when he scored a goal... Tied for third on the team in points and ranked third in assists with a career high (32) and penalty minutes (56)... Ranked second on the team in blocked shots with a career high (113)... One of only two NHL blueliners (along with Chicago's Brent Seabrook) with at least 40 points and 170 hits... Ranked third among League blueliners in shots (254), the third-highest total in franchise history... Had the sixth-most hits among NHL d-men with a career high (211)... Played in all 82 games for the first time in his career, logging the third-most minutes in the League (2,076:09), and setting a franchise record for average ice time (eighth in NHL, 25:19)... Made his second straight All-Star Game appearance in 2011, forming a pairing with Lidstrom to post a +6 rating and four assists, becoming just the second defenseman in All-Star Game history to amass four helpers (Bourque, 1985)... Registered a shot of 104.8 mph in the Hardest Shot Contest during All-Star Weekend, second to Zdeno Chara's record 105.9 mph shot and the hardest shot ever by an NHLer not named Chara or Al Iafrate... Played in his 400th NHL game on April 5 vs. Atlanta... GOALTENDER

CAREER NOTES: Expected to play his first season with Frolunda (Elitserien) in 2011-12... Led all juniors and ranked second among all Allsvenskan (Sweden-2) netminders in save percentage (.936) and goals-against average (2.04) in his first season with Almtuna in 2010-11... Ranked fourth in Sweden's second division in shutouts (5) in 2010-11... Ranked fourth in the 2011 postseason in both save percentage (.908) and goals-against average (3.24)... Led the Swedish Junior League in save percentage (.928), goals-against average (1.97), shutouts (4) and games played (22) with the Almtuna Under-20 squad in 2009-10... Spent two seasons with Arlanda of Sweden's Under-18 league in 2008-09 and 2007-08... Appeared in two games for Uppland in the 2007 TV-Pucken tournament... Ranked second among European Goalies on Central Scouting's Final 2011 list... Nashville goaltender Anders Lindback was also drafted out of the Almtuna system.

SCOUTING REPORT: Extremely athletic for his size... Plays a very composed game... Possesses a high hockey IQ and solid ability to read the play... Always one step ahead of the play and always ready for the puck... Extremely strong mentally.

QUOTEBOOK: "I think he is a lot like Nashville goaltenders Pekka Rinne and Anders Lindback; they could be three brothers because they all look the same in net. I would say Magnus is a mix of Pekka and Anders - he has a little bit of both of those guys. He has a lot of similarities to the guys we already have, and frankly that is probably why is why he was so attractive to us because that is a winning concept. He is always up for the task, he likes a challenge, and when the game is on the line he is one of the guys that likes to step up; that is where he plays his best hockey." - European Scout Lucas Bergman.

LEFT WING

CAREER NOTES: Expected to play his second full season with Karpat Oulu of the Finnish Elite League (SM-Liiga) in 2011-12... Ranked second among SM-Liiga rookies in penalty minutes (53), and tied for 11th in both points (4g-6a-10pts) and plus/minus rating (+2) in 2010-11... Paced Karpat, and all rookies, in penalty minutes (27) while appearing in all three of the club's 2011 playoff games... Named one of Finland's three best players at the Under-18 World Championships after tying for sixth in tournament goals (4) and ranking second on the team in points (6)... Notched three points (2g-1a) and tied for the team lead in penalty minutes (14) with Finland at the 2011 World Junior Championships. Both of his goals were game-winners... Also represented Finland at the 2010 Under-20 Four Nations Tournament... Ranked seventh among European Skaters on Central Scouting's Final 2011 list... Named Finnish Junior League (Jr. A SM-Liiga) rookie of the year in 2009-10... Helped Karpat win the 2010 Jr. A SM-Liiga title... Ranked sixth in the Finnish Junior League in penalty minutes (93), and ranked 11th in both points (18g-25a-43pts) and goals with Karpat's junior squad in 2009-10... Helped Finland to a bronze medal at the 2010 Under-18 World Championships... Posted three points (2g-1a) in five games with Finland at the 2010 World Under-17 Challenge... Tied for fourth in Finland's Jr. B I-division in assists (30), and ranked sixth in both points (43) and penalty minutes (71) with Laser HT U18 in 2008-09... A 2007-08 Pahjola Camp All-Star. Invited as one of the top Under-16 players in the nation... Product of the Karpat Oulu system that also produced Predators goaltender Pekka Rinne.

SCOUTING REPORT: A powerful player who plays a rugged game... Has deceiving skill and speed given his size... Makes a lot of good plays and he has a history of being efficient... Both physically tough and mentally tough... A strong player both mentally and physically... Extremely professional in his approach despite being just 18 years old.

QUOTEBOOK: "We feel that there is something special in Miikka; he will develop and have an impact at many levels and in many areas of the game. He played as a 17-year-old center in the Finnish Elite League, which shows how responsible and how detailed he is in his game. He bleeds the type of enthusiasm and grit that we covet in the organization. A good comparison is Carolina's Tuomo Ruutu - they are both very hard hitting, play a hard game, have skills, and score points. He can beat players one-on-one, and takes no prisoners in his approach." - European Scout Janne Kekalainen

CAREER NOTES: Ranked fifth in the Ontario Hockey League, and set a Saginaw franchise record, in goals (47) in his second season with the Spirit in 2010-11... A 2010-11 OHL Third-Team All-Star... Tied for second in the OHL in shorthanded markers (5), and tied for 12th in League power-play goals (14) in 2010-11... Finished third in the "Most Dangerous in the Goal Area" category of the 2011 OHL Western Conference Coaches' Poll... Led the 2010-11 Spirit in points (72) and ranked third on the team in plus/minus rating (+24) in 2010-11... Set a club record for goals in a game with four on Nov. 27, 2010 vs. Windsor... Played in all 68 of Saginaw's regular-season contests for the second straight season in 2010-11... Recipient of Saginaw's 2011 Northwood University Academic Award... Paced Saginaw in 2011 playoff points (8g-7a-15pts), goals and power-play goals (5)... Tied for 13th in 2011 OHL Playoff goals and fourth in power-play goals despite playing only 12 games/two rounds... Led the 2009-10 Saginaw Spirit in goals (32) and power-play goals (12), and ranked second in points (65)... Recognized as the second-most improved player in the 2010 OHL Western Conference Coaches Poll... The 84th rated North American Skater in Central Scouting's final 2010 rankings, but unranked in his second time through the draft in 2011... Traded to Saginaw in June 2009 after splitting the 2008-09 season between Guelph and Brampton... Traded from Brampton to Guelph on Jan. 9, 2009.

SCOUTING REPORT: A big, strong forward who has taken a little more time to develop than other prospects at that level... Has a knack for scoring goals - is a shooter first and a playmaker second... Is high in character and is a leader... Greatest asset is his consistency - he doesn't score in bunches, but continued to get better and produce as the season progressed... Has a lot of rambunctiousness in his game.

QUOTEBOOK: "Josh played on Saginaw's top line and played in all situations. He is the kind of guy that doesn't need a playmaker. He is a big body, so he can make plays on his own. He does find open areas in the offensive zone, and if he does get the puck in those areas, his gifts are his quick release, his puck skill, and getting pucks to the net. That is his element and it certainly helps if someone can get him the puck. He plays hard in the hard areas and can really muck and grind in the slot as well." - North American Amateur Scout Jason Bukala

GARRETT NOONAN

(GAIR-reht NOO-nuhn)

Shoots left. • 6-0, 205 lbs. • Born, Norfolk, Mass., January 28, 1991.
(Nashville's fourth choice, 112th overall (fourth round), in the 2011 Entry Draft).

DEFENSE

CAREER NOTES: Led the 2010-11 Terriers in penalty minutes (89) during his freshman season... Ranked third among BU defensemen in points (4g-11a-15pts), and tied for third overall in game-winning goals in 2010-11... Tied for seventh among Hockey East rookie defensemen in points... Accounted for two game-winning goals during a personal-best four-game point streak (3g-2a) from Feb. 4-14, 2011... Posted 10 (4g-6a) of his 15 points in his final 16 games of 2010-11... Helped the Vernon Vipers capture the 2010 RBC Cup (Canada's National Junior A Hockey Championship), Doyle Cup (series between BCHL and AJHL champions) and Fred Page Cup (BCHL Champions)... Posted 34 points (12g-22a) in 30 contests while captaining Catholic Memorial High School during the 2008-09 season... Named the 2009 co-MVP of the Catholic Conference after helping Catholic Memorial win the Massachusetts Super 8 Championship ... 2009 Boston Globe All-Scholastic honoree and member of the Boston Herald Dream Team.

SCOUTING REPORT: A solid, two-way defenseman who possesses good vision, but also plays with good bite to his game... Not afraid to mix it up and plays a solid game in his own zone... Moves the puck well, finds teammates in open ice... A character kid who is hard working and wants to be a pro... Will fit well with the Nashville Predators culture.

QUOTEBOOK: "We think Garrett will be a real solid two-way defensive prospect that can enhance our blue line, especially since he's a left-handed shot and we don't have many of those on the blue line. He has physically matured tremendously since arriving at Boston University, and he is going to play a lot of minutes for their team moving forward, even strength, on the power play and on the penalty kill. His game is just going to keep on evolving and he going to become even more of a well-rounded player." - North American Amateur Scout Tom Nolan

DEFENSE

CAREER NOTES: Started the 2010-11 season with Malmo's U-18 team, before being called up to the Junior squad in January. Also appeared in four games for the senior team in Sweden's second division (Allsvenskan)... Led all defensemen in the 2010 J18 Elit Sodra (10-team regional play from September-December), and ranked second on Malmo (U-18), in goals, assists and points (10g-11a-21pts, 15gp)... Tied for third in power-play goals (4), and ranked seventh in shooting percentage (27.8) among all skaters in the 2010 J18 Elit Sodra... Tied for ninth among blueliners in points (2g-4a-6pts, 14gp) during the 2010-11 J20 SuperElit Top 8 portion of Malmo's junior squad's schedule... Also paced Malmo in penalty minutes (20) during the 2010-11 J20 SuperElit Top 8... Played his first season with the Malmo organization in 2009-10, primarily with the U-18 team... Split the 2008-09 season between Karlskrona's U-18 and Junior teams, while also appearing in the TV-Pucken and Rikspucken tournaments for the Blekinge region.

SCOUTING REPORT: A mobile, two-way defenseman who contributes at both ends of the ice... Possesses excellent hockey IQ and skating ability... Has quarterback skills on the power play... Sees the ice very well and has a good transition game... Has a special touch with the puck that you cannot teach.

QUOTEBOOK: "He had a pretty good journey in his draft eligible year, working his way up quickly through the Malmo organization. He started the year as a B-junior player. He worked his way up to A-juniors and he ended the season with a couple of senior games. The raw factor is there - he has grown four to six inches over the last couple summers - and his coordination hasn't really caught up to his size. When it does, we think he could be a home run." - European Scout Lucas Bergman Grew up on the same street as Predators defenseman Jonathon Blum.

SCOUTING REPORT: A skilled center with great speed... Has an elite mind for the game - his hockey smarts and his hockey IQ are outstanding... Has a great pressure point because he doesn't give up the puck easily... Has strong character and shows up to work every day... Can control the tempo of the game and has the ability to make those around him better.

QUOTEBOOK: "He is a solid, two-way forward who has the creative ability and scoring ability that we are looking for in our forwards. He had a great freshman year for an evolving Western Michigan team really coming on offensively and producing at a high level as the season progressed. We are excited about his development at this point, and expect great things from him playing on Western's first line to start the 2011-12 season." - North American Amateur Scout Jason Bukala.

Ranked 11th among QMJHL rookies in shots (122) in his first season with Halifax in 2009-10... Took the second-most face-offs (829) among QMJHL rookies, and ranked 10th among first-year skaters in face-off efficiency (48.3 percent)... Scored a goal in five games for Team Atlantic at the 2009 World Under-17 Hockey Challenge... Selected by Halifax in the first round (15th overall) in the 2009 QMJHL Draft and also extended an offer to play for Maine University... Played his midget hockey for the Cornwall Superior Thunder and Cole Harbour Major Midgets.

SCOUTING REPORT: An excellent defensive-minded forward who is terrific on face-offs... Is strong and his physical game continues to progress... Skates well and is usually noticeable each shift... A team player who exudes character.

QUOTEBOOK: "Brent is a big, two-way centerman that adds some grit to our organization. You can rely on him in our defensive zone, and he doesn't hesitate to sacrifice his body. He spent his draft-eligible season playing down the lineup a bit, so we think he has some offensive potential that has not been tapped yet. He can play in all situations and this year he will be called upon to do that a bit more." - North American Amateur Scout Tom Nolan

PLAYOFF BOUND – SIX OUT OF THE LAST SEVEN

The Nashville Predators made their sixth playoff appearance in the last seven seasons in 2011, making them one of only six franchises to advance to the playoffs six times since 2003-04 (San Jose, Detroit, New Jersey, Philadelphia and Montreal are the others). With 44 wins in 2010-11, Nashville is one of just four teams (with Detroit, San Jose and Calgary) to reach the 40-win mark in each of the last six seasons, and has amassed the League's sixth-highest win total (272) since 2005-06.

Nashville's spot in the 2011 Stanley Cup Playoffs was clinched by a strong stretch run which saw the team go 11-3-1, upon returning from a West Coast swing on March 10. The Predators sat in 11th place in the West at that time, but scored 50 goals in the final 15 games (3.33 goals per game), 12 of which were on home ice (9-2-1 record), to end up with the Conference's fifth seed. Prior to the 15-game offensive outburst, Nashville was averaging 2.43 goals per game.

HOME SUCCESS – ON THE ICE AND IN THE STANDS

The Nashville Predators finished the 2010-11 regular season 24-9-8 (56 points) at Bridgestone Arena, making them one of just three teams (Conference-winners Vancouver and Washington) to amass more than 55 points and have less than 10 regulation losses on home ice this season. The Predators' record came courtesy of a strong finish which saw them go 10-2-1 while playing 12 of their final 15 regular-season games in the Music City. 2010-11 marked the sixth consecutive season Nashville has posted at least 23 home victories, making it the only franchise to do so. In that span, the Predators have posted a 155-66-25 record at Bridgestone Arena, good for the third-most home wins in the League (155) behind Detroit (158) and San Jose (156).

Much of the Predators' home success came courtesy of stingy defense and penalty killing. Nashville allowed a League-low 88 non-shootout goals on home ice – an average of 2.15 a game – allowing more than three goals only seven times in 41 home games. The penalty kill finished without a blemish in 28 of the 41 games, helping the team finish second in home penalty kill (87.8 percent).

Fans recognized the Predators' home success and packed Bridgestone Arena to levels unseen since 1999-2000, the franchise's second season. The Predators averaged 16,143 fans in 2010-11, the highest mark since an average of 16,600 passed through the turnstiles over a decade ago. The venue sold out 16 times – five more than the previous two seasons combined – and third most in franchise history behind 20 sellouts in 1999-2000 and 17 sellouts in 1998-99.

PILLARS OF SUCCESS: DEFENSE AND THE PENALTY KILL

Nashville's most consistent strength in 2010-11 was a defense that allowed the third-fewest goals in the National Hockey League, a franchise-low 194 (average of 2.32). Nashville allowed two goals or fewer 47 times in 2010-11, and when the Predators offense pitched in at least three goals, the club posted a 41-4-2 record. The penalty kill was a large part of the defensive success, finishing with the fifth-best rating in the League (84.9 percent) and helping the team post a 32-13-8 record when finishing perfect on the night. The PK set a franchise record for most consecutive successful penalty kills (37) from Nov. 16-Dec. 6, which included a club-record nine perfect games from Nov. 18-Dec. 4. Nashville's penalty kill has finished in the Top 10 in seven of the last 10 seasons.

ROSTER THEMES: YOUTH AND HOMEGROWN TALENT

Instead of adding veteran experience from outside the organization at the 2010 Trade Deadline, the Nashville Predators chose to promote young talent from within with 2007 first-round pick Jonathon Blum (22 years old), 2006 second-round pick Blake Geoffrion (23) and trade acquisition Matt Halischuk (22). Coupled with long-term injuries to Steve Sullivan (36), Francis Bouillon (35), Matthew Lombardi (29) and Marcel Goc (27), the Predators went down the stretch with the fifth-youngest active roster in the NHL at 26 years, 140 days. The youngsters made their influence felt too – 111 of Nashville's 213 non-shootout goals scored in 2010-11 were scored by players 25 years old or younger (52.1 percent).

The young talent also shows the growth of the sport, as the United States (3), Ontario (3), British Columbia (2), Sweden and Belarus are all represented among the under-25 group. Geoffrion became the first Tennessee native to reach the NHL on Feb. 26 at Dallas, while Blum – who made his debut on Feb. 22 at Columbus – was the first Californian to be selected in the first round of the Entry Draft.

The faith shown by Predators General Manager David Poile in the players he and his staff drafted meant a franchise-record 19 Predators draft selections suited up for the club in 2010-11, breaking the previous club record of 17 set a season ago; this includes nine forwards, seven defensemen and three goalies. Blum and Geoffrion's NHL debuts also means that each of the team's first selections in every draft from its first in 1998 (David Legwand) to 2008 (Colin Wilson) has made it to the National Hockey League.

Here is a breakdown of all 19 draftees to appear on Nashville's roster in 2010-11:

TROTZ MAKES HIS LATEST JACK ADAMS PUSH

Barry Trotz – the only head coach in Nashville Predators franchise history – was again a candidate for the Jack Adams Award as the NHL's top coach after finishing second in voting for the honor in 2009-10. Trotz is the only coach to lead his team to the playoffs in six of the last seven seasons, and did so despite having lost 348 man-games due to injury, a number that ranks among the Top Five in the League. Included in that number are 173 games lost at the center position, including 80 by the team's big free agent signing of the 2010 offseason, Matthew Lombardi. The 2010-11 team had the 21st highest payroll in the League, and after the trade deadline, was the fifth youngest in the League and youngest among playoff teams at 26 years, 140 days.

The Dauphin, Manitoba, native continued to ascend up several coaching lists in 2010-11 as well. The season put him at 984 career games, all with Nashville, putting him fourth on the games coached with a single franchise list behind only Al Arbour (1,500; N.Y. Islanders), Lindy Ruff (1,066, Buffalo) and Billy Reay (1,012; Chicago). He also moved into sixth on the wins with one franchise list (455), and enters 2011-12 just nine wins shy of Edmonton's Glen Sather for fifth place on the list. Trotz also broke into the Top 20 in all-time coaching victories in 2010-11. Now with 12 seasons under his belt in Nashville, he is one of just seven coaches in all four major North American sports leagues to have coached or managed each of a team's first 12 seasons of existence (NHL: Lester Patrick (13, N.Y. Rangers); MLB: Connie Mack (50, Oakland); NFL: Curly Lambeau (29, Green Bay), Tom Landry (29, Dallas), Hank Stram (15, Kansas City), Paul Brown (15, Cleveland)).

TEAM NOTES

TEAM QUICK HITS

- At five-on-five, the Predators outscored the opposition 154-133, tied for the fifth-best ratio in the League (1.16).
- The Predators were assessed 720 penalty minutes in 2010-11, the second-lowest total in franchise history and the second-lowest total in the NHL (8.8 per game). They were shorthanded 272 times (average of 3.32), the second-lowest total in the Western Conference and tied for the sixth-lowest total in the League.
- One season after leading the NHL with 42 victories by two goals or less, the Nashville Predators won 19 of their 44 victories by three-or-more goals. That was 2010-11's fourth-highest total (just one off the League lead), and more victories by three or more in the two previous seasons combined (5 in 2009-10 and 6 in 2008-09).
- Nashville scored a first-period goal in 15 of the season's final 17 games – outscoring the opposition 23-7 in that span – to finish with a +24 first-period goal differential, second-best in the NHL.
- The Predators led the League in fewest second-period goals allowed (58).
- Nashville posted the League's third-best record when outshooting the competition (20-10-4).

A VEZINA/HART-WORTHY SEASON

Goaltender Pekka Rinne was the backbone of the 2010-11 Nashville Predators, putting up the top goaltending performance in franchise history and one of the best in the National Hockey League for the season. Rinne posted a 33-22-9 record with a 2.12 goals-against average, a .930 save percentage and six shutouts in his third NHL campaign. His save percentage ranked second to Boston's Tim Thomas, while his goals-against average ranked third and his shutout total put him in a tie for sixth. The Kempele, Finland native also ranked among the Top 10 goalies in games played (64) and minutes (3,789). Rinne's best work of the banner season came after he returned from a three-week injury absence in late December. From New Year's Eve on, the 6-5, 209-pounder started 42 of Nashville's 46 games, allowing two goals or fewer 28 times in that span while posting 25 wins, second-highest in the League. He posted a goals-against average of 2.00 and a save percentage of .936 in that 42-game span.

With back-to-back seasons of more than 32 wins, and 29 victories as a rookie in 2008-09, Rinne already ranks second in wins by a Predators goaltender (95). His win total of 94 since the start of the 2008-09 campaign is tied for eighth among NHL netminders (94), while his 20 shutouts are tops in the NHL since he recorded his first on Dec. 1, 2008.

NORRIS WORTHY DUO

Shea Weber and Ryan Suter – both drafted by the Predators in 2003 – form one of the top defensive pairings in the League, with Weber providing the goals and highlight reel hits, and Suter playing set-up man and effectively moving the puck up ice.

Nashville's captain put up the second-best offensive season of his career in 2010-11, tying for 10th among NHL defensemen in points (16g-32a-48pts) and fourth at the position in goals. He also finished third at the position in shots (254), the third-highest total in franchise history, and dished out the sixth-most hits among blueliners (211). The Sicamous, B.C., native played in all 82 games for the first time in his career in 2010-11, logging the third-most minutes in the League (2,076:09), and a franchise record for average ice time (25:19). In his second straight All-Star Game appearance in January 2011, the 6-4, 230-pounder formed a pairing with future Hall-of-Famer Nicklas Lidstrom to post a +6 rating while racking up four assists, becoming just the second defenseman in All-Star Game history to amass four helpers (Hall-of-Famer Ray Bourque was the first in 1985). In the previous evening's Hardest Shot Contest, Weber registered a blast of 104.8 mph, second to Zdeno Chara's record 105.9 mph shot. Only Chara and former defenseman Al Iafrate have recorded harder shots in the competition.

Suter, meanwhile, posted a +20 rating in 2010-11, tied for the second-highest total in franchise history and tied for 11th among all blueliners. He led the team in assists and tied for 16th among NHL defenders in the category despite missing 12 games due to injury. The Madison, Wis., native became just the second player in franchise history to average more than 25 minutes in a game (25:12), finishing 10th in the NHL in the category, and the Predators posted a 40-19-9 record in the 68 complete games that he played versus a 4-8-2 record when he wasn't in the lineup or left early due to injury.

2010-11'S BREAKOUT PERFORMER

First-year Predator Sergei Kostitsyn – acquired for a pair of pending free agents (Dan Ellis and Dustin Boyd) on June 29, 2010 – broke out in 2010-11, leading the team in goals (23) and tying for the club lead in points (50). The goal total was just one shy of Kostitsyn's total from his first three seasons and 155 games in the NHL (24), while his point total equaled that from his previous two campaigns combined (108 gp, 17g-33a-50pts). The Novopolotsk, Belarus native started slow, missing Nashville's first two games with a broken toe and posting three points (2g-1a) in his first 18 games of the season, but caught fire after that, amassing 47 points (21g-26a) from Dec. 1 to the end of the season. Kostitsyn registered points in 35 of those 59 games, including an 11-game point streak (7g-8a) from March 17-April 8, the second longest point streak in franchise history and tied for the third longest in the NHL in 2010-11. Kostitsyn scored his 23 goals on just 93 shots – 40 fewer than the next highest shot total among the 68 NHLers with 23-or-more tallies giving him a League-leading shooting percentage of 24.7.

PLAYER QUICK HITS

- Acquired by Nashville on Feb. 10 from the Ottawa Senators, Mike Fisher posted just four points (1g-3a) in his first 20 games with his new club, but rallied in the final two weeks of the regular season, posting eight points (4g-4a) in his final seven games of the season. Fisher ranked second in ice time among Nashville forwards down the stretch (18:15), and finished with a plus or even rating in 17 of his final 20 regular-season games, helping the club to a 13-4-3 mark in that span.
- Martin Erat tied Kostitsyn for the team points lead (17g-33a-50pts) despite missing 18 games due to injury. It marked the fourth time in the last five campaigns he has reached 50 points, and the seventh consecutive season he has posted at least 49 points. The Trebic, Czech Republic native posted 17 points (7g-10a) in his final 17 games of the regular season, including 29 points (11g-18a) in 30 games after the All-Star break.
- Blake Geoffrion became the first Tennessee native to appear in the National Hockey League upon making his Predators debut at Feb. 26 at Dallas. In just his 11th career game on March 20, the fourth-generation NHLer would record his first career hat trick, becoming the youngest player in franchise history to attain the feat, and doing so faster than his Hall-of-Fame great grandfather Howie Morenz (24th career game on Feb. 11, 1925) and grandfather Bernie "Boom Boom" Geoffrion (18th career game on Jan. 27, 1952).

Series Notes	3/19/11: Nashville clinched its second-ever season series victory over Detroit by tying a franchise record with its fourth straight win over the club in a 3-1 win at Bridgestone Arena... 2/9/11: Nashville scored two in the first period and two in the second period en route to a 4-1 victory at Joe Louis Arena, its first win in the venue by more than two goals... 3/27/10: Both Pekka Rinne (38 saves) and Jimmy Howard (33 saves) recorded shutouts in a franchise-record 11-round shootout which saw Detroit win 1-0 at Bridgestone Arena... 4/9/09: J.P. Dumont completed a third-period comeback by scoring an extra-attacker goal with one minute remaining in regulation to force overtime, then Jason Arnott scored the shootout-deciding marker to cap Nashville's first-ever season series win over the Red Wings with a 4-3 victory at Joe Louis Arena... 2/28/09: Nashville set a franchise record for margin of victory in an 8-0 win at Bridgestone Arena. It scored five goals in the first period... 2/24/07: Peter Forsberg's first goal as a Predator was the overtime game winner (2:11) in a 4-3 win over Detroit. Paul Kariya scored to tie the game at 3-3 with 1:04 remaining in regulation... 4/18/06: Paul Kariya recorded his first hat trick as a Predator in a 6-3 win... 1/24/06: Paul Kariya scored 35 seconds into overtime to give Nashville a 2-1 win at Joe Louis Arena... 1/23/06: Nashville defeated Detroit 3-2 at Joe Louis Arena in the game rescheduled from November 21, 2005. The Predators opened the game with a 1-0 lead (Johnson from Upshall and Suter). The Nov. 21 game was canceled in the first period (with Nashville leading 1-0) due to a medical situation involving Detroit defenseman Jiri Fischer... 11/8/03: Nashville staged one of the largest comebacks in franchise history, rallying from a 3-0 deficit with four third-period goals, in a 4-3 win at Joe Louis Arena... 10/30/03: The Predators set franchise records for opponents' penalty minutes (125) and combined penalty minutes (210) in a 5-3 win at Bridgestone Arena... 12/29/01: Bubba Berenzweig registered two assists and scored the game winner at 2:20 of overtime to give the Predators a 3-2 win over the Red Wings at Bridgestone Arena... 10/19/00: Cliff Ronning scored the game-winner 1:51 into overtime in Nashville's 2-1 win, the Predators' first-ever at Joe Louis Arena... 1/14/99: Vyacheslav Kozlov scored the game-winner (2:54) in Nashville's first overtime loss, a 2-1 decision at Detroit... 10/21/98: Mike Dunham made 52 saves in Nashville's 5-2 loss at Detroit.

Last Transaction	7/19/06: Acquired a third-round selection in the 2007 NHL Entry Draft (Ryan Thang) for forwards Dominic Moore and Libor Pivko.
Series Notes	2/14/10: Nashville battled back from two one-goal deficits and scored on both of its shootout attempts to defeat the defending Stanley Cup Champions, 4-3, in its final game at Mellon Arena, and its final game before the 2010 Olympic break... 1/9/09: The Predators rallied from a three-goal deficit for a 5-3 win over the Penguins at Bridgestone Arena... 3/4/04: Nashville tied a franchise-record with nine goals - including a record six on the power play - in a 9-4 victory at the Mellon Arena. The win was Nashville's first at Mellon, and Dan Hamhuis set a franchise record for points by a rookie (1g-4a) and matched the team's all-time mark for points in a single game... 2/27/03: Greg Johnson registered three points (2g-1a) and Tomas Vokoun made 22 saves as Nashville downed Pittsburgh 6-0 at Bridgestone Arena... 10/7-10/8/00: Nashville and Pittsburgh opened the 2000-01 season with a two-game head-to-head series at the Saitama Super Arena outside Tokyo, Japan. The first game (3-1 Nashville win) was designated a home game for Pittsburgh, and the second game (3-1 Pittsburgh win) was a Nashville home contest.
2011-12 Schedule		None	3/22/12: Nashville at Pittsburgh

FIRST SERIES VICTORY
After 984 regular season games and 34 postseason contests, the Nashville Predators advanced to the second round of the playoffs for the first time in 2011, defeating the Anaheim Ducks in six games in the 2011 Western Conference Quarterfinals. The series win built on the Predators' success in reaching the postseason. Nashville has appeared in the playoffs in six of the last seven seasons, and is one of only six franchises to accomplish that feat (San Jose, Detroit, New Jersey, Philadelphia and Montreal are the others).

SCORING FROM THE BLUE LINE
Nashville's defensemen were prolific in the 2011 Playoffs. The Western Conference Quarterfinals series saw every franchise scoring record at the position fall - captain Shea Weber set marks for goals and points, while fellow Sicamous, B.C., native Cody Franson notched four assists, besting a mark shared by Weber and four others. The captain started off the scoring for Nashville in the postseason, notching the team's first goal in Game One against Anaheim just 4:13 into the first period; the next game was a multi-point effort for the 2011 Norris Trophy finalist, as he posted a goal and an assist. By virtue of his performance, Weber moved into a tie for third all-time in franchise postseason scoring among all Predators skaters with 17 points (8g-9a). All-in-all, Predators blueliners factored into 14 of the 22 goals scored by Nashville against Anaheim and combined for 22 points in the playoffs. The Predators used six defensemen during the 2011 postseason, none of which were older than 27 (Shane O'Brien), making them the only playoff team to not dress a blueliner 30 years or older.

A SCORING EQUILIBRIUM
Similar to the team's regular season success, the Nashville Predators' playoff victories were achieved through a balanced scoring attack. Eighteen of 20 skaters earned a point on the scoresheet, and 17 earned at least two. Veteran players such as Joel Ward (13 pts), David Legwand (9 pts) and Mike Fisher (7 pts) led the way, but the team also saw contributions from younger players such as Nick Spaling - whose second goal of Game Six against Anaheim capped a four-point outburst in the series' final two games, along with late-season recalls Matt Halischuk, Blake Geoffrion and Jonathon Blum, each of whom ended up with a pair of points. Goaltender Pekka Rinne also found his name in the assist column, aiding on Spaling's second goal in the WCQ clincher.

ANAHEIM SERIES QUICK HITS
The Predators outscored Anaheim 15-10 in five-on-five play... The Predators outshot the Ducks, recorded at least 30 shots and/or held Anaheim to fewer than 30 shots in five of the six games... The Nashville power play went 6-of-27 (22 percent), scoring in five of the six games... Nashville won 54 percent of the face-offs against Anaheim. Legwand, Spaling, Smithson, Geoffrion and Fisher all finished the series at greater than 50 percent on the draw... Four different Predators scored game-winning goals... Hornqvist set a franchise mark with 29 shots in the series. Weber's five points were a high for a defenseman in a single series.

- WESTERN CONFERENCE QUARTERFINALS -

GAME ONE- (APRIL 13): NASHVILLE 4, ANAHEIM 1 AT THE HONDA CENTER
For the second consecutive year, Nashville opened a playoff series with a 4-1 road win, its second win on opposition ice in franchise history... Mike Fisher set a playoff career high with three points (2g-1a). It was the eighth two-goal performance in franchise playoff history, and only the third time a Predator has picked up three or more points. Fisher's second goal 56 seconds into the final frame was the quickest to open a third period in Predators playoff history... Pekka Rinne came within nine minutes of picking up his first-ever playoff shutout, allowing only a Teemu Selanne five-on-three power-play goal at the 11:24 mark of the third period. Rinne stopped 27 of 28 shots, including 11 of 12 in the third period... The teams combined for 50 penalty minutes in the third period, with Anaheim's 40 PIMs just one minute shy of the most ever accumulated by an opposing team in a period.

GAME TWO- (APRIL 15): ANAHEIM 5, NASHVILLE 3 AT THE HONDA CENTER
Despite taking the loss, the Predators set a number of road records in Game Two - the team scored two power-play goals on the road for the first time in franchise playoff history, the 34 shots recorded by Nashville set a high and the six-shot advantage (34-28) tied the franchise mark... Patric Hornqvist scored his first career playoff goal... Sergei Kostitsyn had a pair of assists... Pekka Rinne stopped 22 of the 24 shots he faced at even strength.

GAME THREE- (APRIL 17): NASHVILLE 4, ANAHEIM 3 AT BRIDGESTONE ARENA
Nashville's first two goals - scored by Martin Erat and Jordin Tootoo - were scored just 38 seconds apart... The 16 total shots allowed were the fewest ever by an opponent in a postseason game, and the 21-shot advantage enjoyed by the Predators nearly tripled the previous record. Fourteen players on the Nashville roster recorded a shot on goal. Despite being outscored by Anaheim in the second frame, the Predators managed 15 shots on goal, matching the most ever recorded in a period by the team in a postseason game... The teams combined for 71 hits. Shane O'Brien led the Predators with six hits... Pekka Rinne earned his fourth postseason win, moving him ahead of Tomas Vokoun for the most in franchise history.

GAME FOUR- (APRIL 20): ANAHEIM 6, NASHVILLE 3 AT BRIDGESTONE ARENA
Nashville and Anaheim traded momentum in the first two periods, with the Ducks taking a two-goal lead just over five minutes into the game before seeing the Predators eventually tie things up in the second period... The three goals scored in the first period were the fastest three goals (both teams combined) in franchise history, coming in a span of 1:04... Anders Lindback saw his first NHL postseason action in relief of Pekka Rinne... The Ducks set series highs for shots in a game (38) and in a period (16 in the first)... The six goals were the most ever allowed by the Predators in a postseason contest... Jordin Tootoo's 22 penalty minutes were a franchise high... Nashville extended its streak of postseason games with a man-advantage goal to four - a franchise record.

GAME FIVE- (APRIL 22): NASHVILLE 4, ANAHEIM 3 (OT) AT THE HONDA CENTER
A four-goal third period broke open what was the third consecutive game tied after two periods (1-1). With the score at 3-2 heading into the 60th minute, Pekka Rinne headed to the bench for the extra attacker; the move paid off with Shea Weber putting a wrist shot behind Ray Emery through the extra traffic with just 35 seconds remaining in the period, setting the stage for the fourth overtime game in Predators playoff history. Jerred Smithson would provide the heroics for Nashville, scoring less than two minutes into sudden death, giving the franchise its first overtime victory in the postseason and marking the first time the franchise had won three games in a series... Kevin Klein scored his first NHL playoff goal in the first period, with Nick Spaling earning his first NHL playoff point on the assist... The game marked the first time in the series Nashville failed to score a power-play goal.

GAME SIX- (APRIL 24): NASHVILLE 4, ANAHEIM 2 AT BRIDGESTONE ARENA
The Nashville Predators won their first-ever playoff series, defeating the Anaheim Ducks in front of the home crowd... Nick Spaling had two goals, his first of the playoffs, Jordin Tootoo earned two assists for a second consecutive game and Joel Ward extended his point streak to a franchise-record five games... David Legwand scored the empty-net goal to secure the win... Pekka Rinne notched an assist on the game-winning goal, the first time a Nashville goaltender was credited with a point in the playoffs... The Predators were called for only two minor penalties in the game.

PLAYOFF NOTES

JOEL WARD STEPS UP
At the completion of the second round, Joel Ward found himself third in playoff scoring, behind only Pavel Datsyuk and Ryan Kesler, with 13 points (7g-6a) in 12 games. Eight of Ward's points came in the Western Conference Semifinals against Vancouver, highlighted by a two-point effort in Game Four, and a three-point outing - only the fourth in franchise history - in Game Five. His performance against the Canucks set a franchise record for points in a single series and moved him into a tie for third in all-time postseason scoring for the club. The right wing's incredible run included points in 10 of the Predators' games, comprised of a pair of five-game streaks - the only times in franchise playoff history a skater has earned points in as many consecutive games.

BATTLE OF THE NETMINDERS
Both Pekka Rinne and Roberto Luongo earned Vezina Trophy nominations for their work in 2010-11. The Western Conference Semifinals showed why they were deserving recipients of the honor. While Luongo would ultimately be the one to advance, Rinne posted a 1.94 goals-against average and a .932 save percentage in the series as he frustrated a Canucks' offense that had scored the most goals in the NHL in the regular season. The Finnish netminder was the First Star selection in each of the first two games and stopped 105 of 110 shots in the opening three games of the series.

END-OF-GAME RESILIENCY
The Predators delivered timely scoring in the first two rounds of the playoffs with 14 third-period goals, leading the League in the category. The haul included a Shea Weber goal with only 35 seconds remaining in the third period in Game Five of the WCQ, and a Ryan Suter tally with 1:07 remaining in the third frame in Game Two of the WCS. The team also captured its first overtime victory in postseason play in Game Five against Anaheim, and added another extra-time win - a 94-minute double-overtime marathon, the longest game in Predators history - in Game Two against Vancouver.

VANCOUVER QUICK HITS
Joel Ward and David Legwand each had four goals, tying the franchise single-series mark. Two of Legwand's goals came while shorthanded, bringing his career total to three (the Predators have a total of six shorthanded goals in playoff history)... Pekka Rinne's 1.94 GAA established a franchise low, while his .932 series save percentage was second best in Predators history... Nashville outhit Vancouver 167-155 in the series... The Predators had more blocked shots than the Canucks in four of the six games (108-90 overall), including a 30-17 advantage in Game Five... Nashville averaged just more than seven penalty minutes per game against Vancouver, after averaging nearly 13 PIM in the WCQ.

- WESTERN CONFERENCE SEMIFINALS -

GAME ONE- (APRIL 28): VANCOUVER 1, NASHVILLE 0 AT ROGERS ARENA
In stark contrast to the Predators' vanquishing of the Anaheim Ducks, the opening game of the Western Conference Semifinals was a low-scoring affair, with only one puck finding the back of the net. Pekka Rinne saw plenty of action, stopping 16 shots in the first period alone. Vancouver would finally break through with a second-period goal and would fend off a Predators attack that more than doubled the Canucks in shots in the contest's final frame (9-4)... The teams were each 0-for-5 on the power play, continuing a trend from the regular season that saw only one special teams goal scored in the four matchups... The teams combined for 27 blocked shots (NSH 15, VAN 12)... Jerred Smithson won 7-of-10 face-offs... Shea Weber doled out a team-high four hits... Ryan Suter played a game-high 29:00.

GAME TWO- (APRIL 30): NASHVILLE 2, VANCOUVER 1 (2 OT) AT ROGERS ARENA
At more than 94 minutes, Game Two was the longest in Predators postseason history. Matt Halischuk ended double overtime with his second goal of the postseason... Nashville's 46 shots and the 79 shots by both teams combined were each franchise highs for a playoff game. The 13-shot advantage held by the Predators also set a new mark for a road game... Nashville held the advantage in shots (46-33), hits (41-34), blocked shots (23-19) and face-off wins (57-43). Kevin Klein recorded a game-high five blocked shots. David Legwand was 18-of-23 (78 percent) in the face-off circle... Suter and Shea Weber each played more than 42 minutes... Before Suter's goal at 18:53 of the third period, the Predators' scoreless streak had extended to 119:03 - the longest in franchise playoff history.

GAME THREE- (MAY 3): VANCOUVER 3, NASHVILLE 2 (OT) AT BRIDGESTONE ARENA
For a second consecutive game, extra time was needed to determine a winner. Nashville jumped out to an early lead in front of the home crowd on a shorthanded marker off the stick of David Legwand, his second career postseason goal with a man down... The loss in overtime was the Predators' first extra-time defeat in the 2011 postseason after winning in their two previous attempts... In stopping 44 of 47 shots, Pekka Rinne posted a save percentage of at least .926 for a fourth consecutive game... Nashville had a franchise-record shutout streak of 93:51 snapped at 1:00 of the second period.

GAME FOUR- (MAY 5): VANCOUVER 4, NASHVILLE 2 AT BRIDGESTONE ARENA
For the third straight game Nashville scored a third-period goal to tie the score going down the stretch... Joel Ward and Cody Franson both notched two points in the game... Ward's power-play goal was the Predators' first of the series... Cody Franson scored his first NHL playoff goal... Patric Hornqvist had a team-high five shots. Shea Weber blocked a game-high five shots. Nick Spaling won 9 of his 12 face-offs... Smithson left the game with an upper-body injury in the first period. Steve Sullivan did not play due to a lower-body injury sustained in Game Three. Colin Wilson made his 2011 Playoffs debut in Sullivan's place.

GAME FIVE- (MAY 7): NASHVILLE 4, VANCOUVER 3 AT ROGERS ARENA
The Predators' third period play continued to be strong in Game Five, with Joel Ward netting a pair of goals, including the eventual game-winner - the team's 14th third-frame marker of the playoffs. Ward joined David Legwand as a two-goal scorer on the night and posted his second straight multi-point game. Legwand opened the scoring with his second shorthanded tally of the 2011 postseason at the 3:42 mark of the first period... Ward had a game-high five shots on net... The Predators blocked 30 shots. Mike Fisher and Kevin Klein each had six blocks... Klein and Ward were each +3... Ward's first goal of the game marked the third time in 11 games that Nashville scored in the first 90 seconds of the third period... Pekka Rinne allowed more than two even-strength goals for only the second time in the playoffs... The win was the Predators' second on road ice in the series, and fourth of the playoffs, and was also Nashville's first win when facing elimination in a series... Nashville had a franchise-record road shutout streak of 78:50 snapped at 5:59 of the first period.

GAME SIX- (MAY 9): VANCOUVER 2, NASHVILLE 1 AT BRIDGESTONE ARENA
Nashville outshot Vancouver for the second time in the series as the Predators held the Canucks to only two shots in the second period. Shea Weber had a game-high six shots on goal, including five of Nashville's 11 in the first period... Jordin Tootoo had a game-high five hits... David Legwand extended his point streak to four games... Joel Ward matched his five-game point streak from the Western Conference Quarterfinal series against Anaheim with an assist. Ward finished the series with eight points, setting a franchise mark.

MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA RELATIONS

PRESS INFORMATION
Inquiries about the Predators may be directed to Gerry Helper (ghelper@nashvillepredators.com; 615-770-2344), Kevin Wilson (kwilson@nashvillepredators.com; 615-770-2335) or Jessica Jones (jjones@nashvillepredators.com; 615-770-2347) of the club's communications department.

CREDENTIALS
Season passes are issued to those members of the media who regularly cover the Nashville Predators. These passes will be honored for entrance to Bridgestone Arena and all working areas for all 2011-12 regular-season home games. Single-game credentials must be submitted by email on company letterhead to Kevin Wilson (kwilson@nashvillepredators.com) by 1:00 p.m. on the day prior to the game in question. Press box space is limited; for this reason, the Predators cannot guarantee credentials to those members of the media who request such passes after the deadline.

Credentials will be issued only to representatives of legitimate news-gathering agencies, websites and blogs. They will be confiscated if worn by members of the media whose names do not appear on the credential. Only credentialed members of the media are allowed to sit in the press box.

MEDIA ENTRANCE
All credentialed media may enter through the employee entrance of Bridgestone Arena on Fifth Avenue (facing the Hilton Suites hotel). The entrance will be open three hours prior to face-off and for morning skate access. Credentials are available at this entrance.

PHOTOGRAPHERS
Accredited photographers may shoot from the photo boxes adjacent to the players' benches and other designated areas. In accordance to NHL Images policies and procedures, freelance photographers and roving passes are not permitted. Location assignments are issued by the Predators' communications department and coordinated with team photographer John Russell.

PRESS BOX & RADIO/TV BOOTHS
The Bridgestone Arena press box is located in sections 310 (television and radio broadcasts), 311 (home and visiting beat writers) and 312 (local TV crews, scouts, other media), and can be reached from the event level by taking the elevators/freight elevator near the Zamboni entrance to Level 4. Proceed to your left out of the elevators, and the press box is three sections down.

WIRELESS INTERNET SERVICE
Wireless internet is available (free of charge) to media in the event-level media lounge and in the press box. The password can be attained through the Predators communications staff. For technical assistance, please contact Casey Millar (cmillar@nashvillepredators.com).

2011-12 NASHVILLE PREDATORS MEDIA GUIDE
The Nashville Predators 2011-12 media guide is available for download at nashvillepredators.com/mediaguide.

PRE-GAME
The Predators' dressing room corridor will be open until 90 minutes before each game. A representative from the Predators' communications department will be present to assist members of the media wishing to interview players. Television and radio stations seeking live or taped pregame interviews must request the coach or player and state the specific interview time to media relations representatives AT OR BEFORE the game-day skate.

POSTGAME
Head Coach Barry Trotz will be available in the event-level media lounge for his postgame press conference following each home game. The Predators' dressing room will open no later than 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game. Transcriptions of both head coaches' postgame press conferences, as well as various Predators and visitors player quotes from the locker room will be distributed to the media in a timely manner following each home game. The freight elevator outside section 312 & 313 will make two express trips to the event level immediately following the game.

MEDIA WORK ROOMS
Workrooms and pregame meals are available in the media dining area on the event level in the northwest corner of the arena. These rooms open three hours before the opening face-off. There is a second media lounge adjacent to sections 310 and 311. Statistical information, beverages and snacks will be available in the upper lounge during intermissions. Credentials must be displayed at all times to gain access to all media areas.

PRACTICE SESSIONS
Locker rooms will open 10 minutes (maximum) after the conclusion of practice. In the event of a team meeting, the room will open at the conclusion of the meeting.

BETWEEN-PERIOD TV INTERVIEWS
Requests are to be made before or during the morning skate. A communications representative will be on hand to assist with all requests.

OFF-LIMITS
The medical room and shower and lavatory areas will be closed to all media. The main locker room will be open to the media. Media are not permitted to enter the coaches' offices unless escorted by a member of the Predators communications department.

INJURY REPORTS
Predators General Manager David Poile, Head Coach Barry Trotz and communications personnel are the only Predators representatives who will offer comments on player injuries or injury updates.

CENTENNIAL SPORTSPLEX

222 25th Avenue North
Nashville, TN 37203
(615) 862-8480

The Thomas Frist Centennial Sportsplex is operated by the Metro Board of Parks and Recreation in Nashville. The facility was made possible by a landmark land exchange between Metro Parks and healthcare provider Hospital Corporation of America (HCA). The city exchanged 10 prime acres adjacent to Centennial Park for $12 million. The money was used to build the Sportsplex.

The $20 million, 145,000 square-foot Sportsplex features a tennis center, a fitness center, an aquatics center and two full-size ice rinks. The aquatics center, named after Olympian Tracy Caulkins, has been the site of numerous U.S. Senior and Junior National Swim Meets, the YMCA National Swim Meet and, to date, still holds one of the fastest times ever swam for the men's 50-meter freestyle, set in the inaugural swim meet in February 1990 by Olympian Tom Jager.

The ice arena is home to the Nashville Predators' practice facility which opened on February 1, 1999. The building holds offices for Predators coaching staff and hockey operations department, a full dressing room, weight room and athletic training wing.

The Sportsplex is also the home of the Predators' summer development camp and training camp.

In addition, Centennial Sportsplex hosts adult hockey leagues, figure skating, numerous public sessions, figure skating competitions, ice shows, hockey tournaments and camps. In 1997, it was one of the sites for the USFSA National Championships.

The fitness center includes free weights and weight machines for complete workouts as well as daily aerobics classes, and plans are underway to build a new $2 million state of the art fitness center to be open in late 2012.

Centennial Sportsplex offers instructional classes in skating, swimming and tennis, as well as public usage in each of those areas. The ice arena and aquatic area also offers special rates for parties, schools and group events. For further information, contact the Centennial Sportsplex at (615) 862-8480 or visit nashville.gov/sportsplex.

A-GAME SPORTSPLEX

215 Gothic Court
Franklin, TN 37067
(615) 771-2444

A-Game Sportsplex is a privately owned facility that has become one of the premiere sports destinations in the south. Located in Cool Springs, A-Game (formerly known as Southern Ice) is a 175,000-square-foot multi-sport training facility with five acres of outdoor space. The facility features two ice rinks, six hardwood courts for basketball and volleyball, multiple outdoor fields for football and lacrosse, a fitness center, laser chase and other sports and activities.

A-Game Sportsplex operates and administrates youth and adult hockey programs via the A-Game Hockey Association for all ages and skill levels. Youth hockey programs consist of introductory classes for new players, training clinics geared towards skill development for all levels, recreational house leagues and competitive travel teams. Adult hockey programs feature in-house recreational leagues by skill level along with training clinics focused on skill development and team tactics.

A-Game houses a pair of travel hockey programs. The Nashville Jr. Predators – the NHL club's first minor hockey affiliate established in 2009 – is a youth "AA" travel program that houses Minor and Major teams at the Mite, Squirt, Bantam, Pee-Wee and Midget classifications. The A-Game Travel "A" Storm program has Squirt, Pee-Wee, Bantam and Midget Minor clubs.

The venue is also home to several of the Predators Youth & Amateur Hockey initiatives, including the Summer Hockey School and Get Out And Learn! (G.O.A.L!) program, a free introductory program is designed for kids 9-and-under with no prior playing experience.

In an effort to support grassroots development of youth and amateur hockey in Middle Tennessee, the Nashville Predators donated $150,000 to A-Game Sportsplex in October 2010. This partnership was aimed toward bolstering grassroots development of the game and serves as a springboard for developing fans in the Middle Tennessee area. Thanks to the partnership, the Predators also host other events at A-Game such as hockey clinics, dry-land training and open skates.

ORDER OF SELECTION FOR 2012 ENTRY DRAFT

The NHL's annual Draft Drawing is a weighted lottery system to determine the order of selection for the first 14 picks of the 2012 Entry Draft.

The 14 teams that did not qualify for the Stanley Cup Playoffs, or clubs that acquired those clubs' 2012 first-round draft picks, participate in the Drawing.

The Club selected in the drawing may not move up more than four positions in the draft order, thus only the five Clubs with the fewest regular-season points have the opportunity to receive the first overall selection.

No Club can move down more than one position as a result of the Draft Drawing.

In the first round of the 2012 Entry Draft, the order of selection is as follows:

a) The first 14 selections, as determined by the Draft Drawing (see above);
b) Clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2012 Stanley Cup Playoffs, regular-season division winners excluded, in inverse order of points;
c) Regular-season division winning clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2012 Stanley Cup Playoffs, in inverse order of points;
d) Clubs eliminated in the 2012 Conference Finals, in inverse order of points;
e) Stanley Cup finalist
f) Stanley Cup champion

In the second and subsequent rounds the order of selection is as follows:

a) Non-playoff clubs in inverse order of points;
b) Clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2012 Stanley Cup Playoffs, regular-season division winners excluded, in inverse order of points;
c) Regular-season division winning clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2012 Stanley Cup Playoffs, in inverse order of points;
d) Clubs eliminated in the 2012 Conference Finals, in inverse order of points;
e) Stanley Cup finalist
f) Stanley Cup champion

ELIGIBILITY FOR CLAIM

a) All Players age 18 or older are eligible for claim in the Entry Draft, except:
i. a Player on the Reserve List of a Club, other than as a try-out;
ii. a Player who has been claimed in two prior Entry Drafts;
iii. a Player who previously played in the League and became a Free Agent pursuant to this Agreement;
iv. a Player age 21 or older who: (A) has not been selected in a previous Entry Draft and (B) played hockey for at least one season in North America when he was age 18, 19, or 20 and shall be eligible to enter the League as an Unrestricted Free Agent pursuant to Article 10.1(d); and 18
v. a Player age 22 or older who has not been selected in a previous Entry Draft and shall be eligible to enter the League as an Unrestricted Free Agent pursuant to Article 10.1(d).

UNSIGNED DRAFT CHOICES

a) A player aged 18 or 19 who was selected in the first three rounds of the Entry Draft and who was not signed by his NHL Club may not be retained by the Club and must be returned to his junior Club no later than the day prior to the opening of the NHL regular season.

b) A player aged 18 or 19 who was selected in the fourth or subsequent rounds who has not been signed by his NHL Club may not be retained by his Club and must be returned to his junior Club no later than the fourth day prior to the opening of the NHL regular season.

ENTRY LEVEL PLAYERS

1. Players 18 through 21 years of age when signing their first contract must remain in the entry-level system for a period of three years; players age 22 and 23 when signing their first contract are in the entry level system for two years; while those age 24 when signing their first contract are in the entry level system for one year. Age is defined as the player's age on September 15 of the calendar year in which he signs the contract, regardless of his actual age on the date he signs such contract.

2. In the event that a signed 18 or 19-year-old player does not play a minimum of 10 NHL games (regular season and/or playoffs) in his first season under contract, the term of his player contract and his number of years in the entry level system will be extended for a period of one year. The exception to this is a 19-year-old player who turns 20 years of age between September 16 and December 31 in his first contract year.

MEDIA INFORMATION
HOCKEY OPERATIONS

3. In the event that a player signs his first contract at age 18 and has had his Player Contract extended for one season already, and such player does not play at least 10 NHL games (regular season and/or playoffs) in the second season under that player's Player Contract, then the term of his Player Contract and his number of years in the Entry Level System shall be extended for one additional year.

23-MAN ROSTER

There may be a maximum of 23 players on each Club's playing roster at any one time from the commencement of the NHL regular season through the trade deadline. Prior to the start of the season, each Club must submit to the NHL its "Opening Day Playing Roster" which shall be comprised of not more than 23 players. Each Club must have a roster of at least 20 players, composed of 18 skaters and two goaltenders. Players on Injured Reserve do not count in the 23-Man Roster limit.

INJURED RESERVE LIST

In the event that a player is injured and a Club wishes to place him on the Injured Reserve List, the Club must follow these procedures.

1. A Club may place a player on the injured reserve list if such player is injured, disabled or ill and unable to perform his duties as a hockey player after having passed the Club's initial physical examination in that season.
2. A player who has an injury that renders him physically unable to play for a minimum of seven days after that date of the injury can be placed on the Club's Injured Reserve List. Once a player is placed on the injured reserve, the Club may replace said player on its NHL roster with another player. All determinations that a player has suffered an injury warranting injured reserve status must be made by the Club's medical staff and in accordance with the Club's medical standards.
3. A player placed on Injured Reserve is ineligible to compete in NHL games for a period of not less than seven days from the date of injury.
4. Players on Injured Reserve may attend Club meetings and meals, travel with the Club and participate in practice sessions.
5. Players on Injured Reserve are prohibited from appearing in games, participating in pre-game warm-ups with their Clubs, or dressing in game uniforms on game days.

REGULAR SEASON WAIVERS

For purposes of Regular Waivers and Re-Entry Waivers, the five (5) year exemption for an 18 year old skater and the four (4) year exemption for a 19 year old skater shall both be reduced to three (3) years commencing the first season that the 18 or 19 year old skater plays in eleven (11) NHL Games or more. The next two (2) seasons, regardless of whether the skater plays any NHL Games in either season, shall count as the second and third years toward satisfying the exemption. For purposes of Regular Waivers and Re-Entry Waivers, the six (6) year exemption for an 18 year old goalie and the five (5) year exemption for a 19 year old goalie shall both be reduced to four (4) years commencing the first season that the 18 or 19 year old goalie plays in eleven (11) NHL Games or more. The next three (3) seasons, regardless of whether the goalie plays any NHL Games in any of those three (3) seasons, shall count as the next three (3) years toward satisfying the exemption.

The first season in which a Player who is age 20 or older plays in one (1) or more Professional Games shall constitute the first year for calculating the number of years he is exempt from Regular Waivers and Re-Entry Waivers.

A Player 25 years old or older who plays in one (1) or more Professional Games in any season shall be exempt from Regular Waivers and Re-Entry Waivers for the remainder of that season.

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES (NHL BY-LAW 27.3)

At the conclusion of the regular Schedule of Championship Games the standing of the teams in each Conference shall be determined in accordance with the following priorities in the order listed:

a) First place in each of the three divisions seeded 1, 2 and 3.

b) The higher number of points earned by the Club.

c) The greater number of games won by the Club (excluding games won in the Shootout).

d) The higher number of points earned in games against each other among two or more Clubs having equal standing under priorities (b) and (c).

ABDUCTION: Movement of a joint away from the center of the body.

AC JOINT (ACROMIOCLAVICULAR JOINT): Joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the shoulder blade and the distal end of the collarbone meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

ADDUCTION: Movement of a joint toward the center of the body.

ADHESION: Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved; or scar tissue which forms after trauma or surgery which can restrict normal motion.

AEROBIC: Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.

ANABOLIC STEROIDS: Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).

ANAEROBIC: Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise.

ANTERIOR CRUCIATE LIGAMENT (ACL): A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

ANTI-INFLAMMATORY: Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

ARTERIOGRAM: A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

ARTHROGRAM: X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

ARTHROSCOPE: An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

ARTHROSCOPY: A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of observation through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

ATROPHY: To shrivel or shrink from disuse; as in muscular atrophy.

BAKER'S CYST: Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the back of the knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.

BONE SCAN: An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bone injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a 'hot spot' on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

BURSA: A fluid-filled sac located in areas where friction is likely to occur. The bursa sac minimizes the friction, for example, between a tendon and bone.

CARTILAGE: Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating. Most joints use this to cover bones next to each other. A meniscus is made of cartilage.

CAT SCAN (COMPUTERIZED TOMOGRAPHY): Use of a computer to produce a cross-sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

CHONDROMALACIA: Roughening of the articular cartilage. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the kneecap, which can occur in any kneecap injury.

CLAVICLE: Collarbone; the bone connecting the breastbone with the shoulder blade.

COCCYX: The 'tailbone,' a group of four vertebrae that are fused together to form a small triangular bone, located at the terminal end of the spine.

CONCUSSION: Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe, depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

CONTUSION: An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

CORTICOSTEROIDS: Used to suppress joint inflammation and inflammation in a bursa or near tendons.

CRYOTHERAPY: A treatment with the use of cold.

CYST: Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

DEGENERATIVE JOINT DISEASE: Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma and 'wear and tear'.

DELTOID LIGAMENT: Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

DELTOID MUSCLE: Muscles at the top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions in the front, side and back.

DISC INTERVERTEBRAL: A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

DISLOCATION: Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

ELECTROMYOGRAM (EMG): Test to determine nerve function.

EPICONDYLITIS: Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse. Common in tennis players (outer part of elbow) and golfers (inner part of elbow).

ETIOLOGY: Study of the cause of injury and disease.

EXTENSION: Action of straightening of a joint as achieved by an extensor muscle.

FASCIA: A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissue.

FAT PERCENTAGE: The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentage can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness or by analyzing electrical impedance.

FEMUR: Thighbone; longest bone in the body.

FIBULA: Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from the knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

FLEXIBILITY: The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.

FRACTURE: Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

GLENOHUMERAL: The shoulder girdle; consists of the glenoid capsule, head of the humerus and labrum.

GLENOID: Cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to form the shoulder girdle.

GLENOID LABRUM: A rim of fibrocartilaginous tissue attached around the margin of the glenoid fossa.

GRADE ONE INJURY: A mild injury in which ligament, tendon or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

GRADE TWO INJURY: A moderate injury in which musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn, causing appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

GRADE THREE INJURY: A severe injury in which tissue loss has been significant, and in many cases, totally torn or otherwise disrupted, causing a virtual loss of function.

GROIN: Junction of the thigh and abdomen, location of muscles that rotate, flex and adduct the hip.

HAMMER TOE: Condition when the first digit of a toe is at a different angle that the remaining digits of the same toe.

HAMSTRING: Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee and is often times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.

HEMARTHROSIS: Accumulation of blood within a joint as a result of an acute injury.

HEMATOMA: Mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity or in soft tissues.

HIP POINTER: Contusion to the iliac crest.

HYDROTHERAPY: Treatment using water.

MEDIA INFORMATION
MEDICAL GLOSSARY

HYPEREXTENSION: Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

ILIOTIBIAL BAND: A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint on the outside of the thigh.

INFLAMMATION: The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and/or loss of function.

ISOMETRIC CONTRACTION: Muscular contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done.

LABRUM (LABRUM GLENOIDULE): The cartilage of the glenoid cavity in the shoulder. A lip-edged or lip-like structure.

LATERAL COLLATERAL LIGAMENT (LCL): Ligament of the knee along the outer aspect that connects the femur to the fibula. It provides lateral stability to the joint.

LIGAMENT: Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

MAGNETIC RESONANCE IMAGING (MRI): Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.

MEDIAL COLLATERAL LIGAMENT (MCL): Ligament of knee along the inner aspect that connects the femur to the tibia.

MENISCUS: Crescent-shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as cartilage. There are two menisci in the knee - medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

METACARPALS: Five long bones of the hand, joining the fingers to the wrist.

METATARSALS: Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

MYOSITIS: Inflammation of a muscle.

ORTHOTIC: Any device applied to or around the body of physical impairment of disability. Commonly used to control foot mechanics.

OSTEOCHONDRITIS DESSICANS: A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma and a cause of a lesion.

OSTEOMYELITIS: An inflammatory disease of bone caused usually by infection with streptococcus or staphylococcus bacteria.

PATELLA: The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

PLANTAR FASCIITIS: Inflammation of the plantar (a thick tissue on the bottom of the foot which helps create the arch) fascia; associated with overuse or acute foot injury.

POSTERIOR CRUCIATE LIGAMENT (PCL): A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

QUADRICEP MUSCLES: A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

RADIUS: Bone in the forearm from elbow to the thumb side of the wrist.

RECONSTRUCTION: Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.

ROTATOR CUFF: Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis.

SACROILIAC: Junction of the sacrum, the lower back bone, with the pelvis.

SACRUM: Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the lower back, which form part of the pelvis.

SCAPULA: Shoulder blade.

SCIATICA: Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

SCIATIC NERVE: Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

SHIN SPLINT: A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

SPLEEN: Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells located under the left rib cage.

SPONDYLOSIS: Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

SPRAIN: Injury resulting from the stretching or twisting of the joint and causes various degrees of stretching or tearing of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

STRAIN: Injury resulting from a pulling or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretching or tearing to the muscle or tendon tissue.

STRESS FRACTURE: A hair-line type of break in a bone. Caused by overuse.

SUBLUXATION: Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to a normal position without formal reduction.

SYNOVIAL FLUID: Lubricating fluid for joints and tendons, produced in synovium, or the inner lining of a joint.

SYNOVITIS: Inflammation of the synovial lining of a joint.

TALUS: The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.

TARSALS: Group of seven bones of the foot consisting of the calnavicular, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.

TENDINITIS: Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

TENDON: Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

TENOSYNOVITIS: Swelling or inflammation of a tendon sheath caused by calcium deposits, repeated strain or trauma.

TIBIA: Shin bone; larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

TRANSCUTANEOUS ELECTRICAL NERVE STIMULATOR (TENS): An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic endorphin.

TRANSVERSE PROCESS: Small lateral projection off the right and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.

TRICEPS: Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.

ULNA: Inner bone of the forearm that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.

ULNAR NERVE: Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

ULTRASOUND: An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.

"WIND KNOCKED OUT": Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve truck, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.

Vanderbilt Sports Medicine

Vanderbilt Sports Medicine is the most comprehensive sports medicine service in Middle Tennessee. Its highly trained team cares for all athletic injuries and specializes in knee and shoulder injuries to all recreational and competitive athletes. Patients at Vanderbilt Sports Medicine benefit from a staff of sports medicine-trained physicians, a state-of-the-art facility, and the support and resources of the Vanderbilt Medical Center. The Vanderbilt Sports Medicine team shares a common commitment to professional and personal excellence. All physicians on staff are fellowship trained in sports medicine.

VSM's goal is to provide patients with the highest standard of care possible. Patients receive an individualized treatment and rehabilitation program designed to return them to their previous level of activity as quickly and safely as possible. The Vanderbilt Sports Medicine Center is dedicated to excellence in patient care, research, education, and sports medicine.

HOW TO FIGURE

Assist: An assist is awarded to the player or players (maximum of two) who touched the puck prior to the goal, provided no defender plays or possesses the puck in between.

Game played: A player receives credit for playing in a game if: i) he steps on the ice during time played or; ii) serves any penalty.

Game-winning goal: After the final score has been determined, the goal which leaves the winning club one goal ahead of its opponent is the game-winning goal (example: if Team A beats Team B 8-3, the player scoring the fourth goal for Team A receives credit for the game-winning goal).

Goal: A goal is awarded to the last player on the scoring club to touch the puck prior to the puck entering the net.

Goals-against average: Multiply goals allowed (GA) by 60 and divide by minutes played (MINS).

Goaltender: A goaltender receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

Penalty-killing pct.: Subtract total number of power-play goals allowed from total number of shorthanded situations to get total number of power-plays killed. Divide the total number of power-plays killed by the total number of shorthanded situations.

Plus-minus: A player receives a "plus" if he is on the ice when his club scores an even-strength or shorthanded goal. He receives a "minus" if he is on the ice for an even-strength or shorthanded goal scored by the opposing club. The difference in these numbers is considered the player's plus-minus statistic.

Power-play goal: A goal scored by a club while it has a manpower advantage due to an opponent's penalty. Following are some examples of what is and is not considered a power-play goal:

- if a club has an advantage on a minor penalty starting at 2:02 of the period and it scores at 4:02, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a club scores on a delayed penalty, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a club has an advantage due to a five-minute major or match penalty, that club is always credited with having one more advantage than the number of power-play goals it scores during that advantage, because the penalty does not expire. A new advantage begins after each power-play goal. For example, if Team A scores three goals during a major penalty, it is credited with four advantages.
- if a club is on a power-play for any length of time, it is considered to have had an advantage.
- if a minor penalty is incurred by a club on a power-play due to a major penalty, a new advantage is given to that club when its minor penalty expires, provided the opponent's major penalty is still in effect.

Power-play percentage: Total number of power-play goals divided by total number of power-play opportunities.

Save percentage: Subtract goals allowed (GA) from shots against (SA) to determine saves. Then divide saves by shots-against.

Shooting percentage: Divide the number of goals scored by the number of shots taken.

Shorthanded goal: A goal scored by a club while it is at a manpower disadvantage. The same cases apply for shorthanded as for power-play goals, but in the opposite manner.

Shot on goal: If a player shoots the puck with the intention of scoring and if that shot would have gone in the net had the goaltender not stopped it, the shot is recorded as a "shot on goal."

Shutout: If two goaltenders combine for a shutout, neither receives credit for the shutout. Instead it is recorded as a club shutout.

Tenths of a second: If a penalty or goal occurs in the last minute, the time is rounded off to the previous second (ex: if a penalty is called with 12.4 seconds left in a period, the time is indicated as 19:47 and not 19:48.)

Coaches' record: A coach receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

 NOTE: No individual skater/goaltender statistics apply for the shootout

NAME, LOGO & SWEATERS

The Predators unveiled their logo, a saber-toothed tiger, in Nashville's downtown First American Center on September 25, 1997, 26 years after a fang and foreleg bone of a saber-toothed tiger were found in a cave just below the building's address. In May of 1971, excavation began at the downtown Nashville site of what today is the 28-story Regions Center. Further digging revealed a cave containing the nine-inch fang and a foreleg bone of a saber-toothed tiger, extinct for at least 10,000 years. Radiocarbon tests on revealed that it could have possibly been one of the last of its breed to exist. Scientists believe that some time during the last glacial period (15,000-80,000 years ago) part of the cave was the den of the saber-toothed tiger.

The discovery, made in August 1971, marked only the fifth of its kind in North America.

The saber-toothed tiger logo was co-designed by JDK Design of Burlington, Vermont and Dye, Van Mol & Lawrence of Nashville.

The naming of the Predators was a direct reflection of the fans of Nashville and their choice.

During the public events and through focus groups and related surveys, fans selected the name "Predators" by an overwhelming two-to-one margin over the second choice. On November 13, 1997, the saber-toothed tiger logo was unveiled for the first time with the Predators insignia attached to it. On February 12, 1998, Head Coach Barry Trotz and Assistant Coach Paul Gardner unveiled the Predators' inaugural home and away jerseys at Cool Springs Galleria.

On November 21, 2001, the Predators debuted a third jersey with a 4-3 win against the Chicago Blackhawks at Bridgestone Arena. The jersey featured an "animated" saber-tooth tiger logo on the crest and tiger skulls on the shoulders. It was retired following the 2006-07 season.

For the 2007-08 season, the Predators, along with the other 29 NHL teams, introduced the Rbk EDGE Uniform System to further meet the performance demands of today's player.

The Predators would debut a new third jersey on November 27, 2009 against the St. Louis Blues. The sweaters, which features a vintage-inspired lace-up front, a subtle checkerboard pattern lining the bottom of the jersey, and a bolder and more simplified color scheme, were worn for the past two seasons, but will be set aside in 2011-12, making way for the first logo and color scheme redesign in franchise history.

The new logo and uniforms for the 2011-12 season were designed to develop a powerful, long term brand message and help infuse new life into the Nashville Predators imagery and brand with a more contemporary, aggressive, streamlined logo that still maintains the basic Pred Head concept. A new secondary logo was also designed to represent the state flag of Tennessee and Nashville's Music City heritage simultaneously, with a guitar pick shape incorporating the three stars of the state's three grand divisions – West, Middle and East. The "Predators Gold" sweaters create a distinctive, dominant, bold look that balances traditional elements of classic uniforms, with those unique to Nashville –guitar strings in the numbering and lettering, fangs in the neck area and piano keys on the inside of the collars.

NASHVILLE HOCKEY HISTORY

In the spring of 1962, a small group of businessmen led by David Patterson put up $125,000 to place a team in the Eastern Hockey League. The Dixie Flyers, named after a passenger train said to be the oldest in the South, were placed in the nine-team league. The purple-and-gold colored Flyers played their first regular-season home game (a 2-0 loss to Knoxville) on Oct. 27, 1962 at the Municipal Auditorium. The Flyers endured a rough opening season, winning 16 games and qualifying for the playoffs, only to be swept in three games by Greensboro. However, it didn't take long for the Flyers to make their presence felt.

After losing in the 1965 Finals, the Flyers went on to win EHL Walker Cup championships in 1966 and 1967, the only two professional ice hockey titles in the city's history. John McLellan, who went on to coach the Toronto Maple Leafs, coached the Flyers. The Flyers swept each of their three playoff series' in 1966. They won the championship by going 11-0 in the playoffs and becoming the first team in minor league ice hockey ever to march through the playoffs undefeated.

In 1967, Patterson's group sold the team to a business group headed by Mark Parrish. The Cinderella '69 team reached the Finals, but lost in seven tough games to the Clinton (N.Y.) Comets in the Walker Cup Finals. Shortly after, the Flyers' attendance slipped dramatically. Barely able to scrape up enough funds to start the 1970-71 campaign, the Flyers folded following the season.

Hockey returned to Nashville when baseball guru Larry Schmittou, who brought minor league baseball back to Nashville in 1978 after a 15-year absence, did the same for hockey in July 1981. Thus the South Stars were founded, a team that played in the Central Hockey League and had the Minnesota North Stars as its NHL affiliate. The logo was a hockey player swinging a guitar representing the Music City while using yellow, orange and green.

The 1981-82 team finished fourth in its division and lost to Wichita, 3-0, in the first round of the playoffs. Gene Ubriaco, who went on to coach the NHL's Pittsburgh Penguins and 1992 Italian Olympic team, coached the Stars.

Under new ownership (Randy Van Meter), the Stars pulled out of the CHL in 1982 and entered the old Atlantic Coast Hockey League (ACHL), playing teams geographically closer to Nashville. The Stars finished 11-43-4 and suffered through a season of low attendance. They began the following season, only to fold in December 1983.

Two Knoxville wrestling promoters, Bob Polk and Ron Fuller, rescued the sport five years later. They purchased an East Coast Hockey League franchise in January 1989. The Knights, with popular ex-South Stars player Archie Henderson as coach, attracted an astonishing 150,000 fans their first season (1989-90). While wearing red and blue uniforms adorned with the logo of a knight's mask, they made the playoffs but lost in the first round. During the 1990-91 season, Peter Horachek, current Predators associate coach, served as the Knights' head coach and director of hockey operations.

The Knights went through three ownership changes in their seven-year history. They twice went to the semifinals of the ECHL playoffs - in 1993 under ex-NHL standout and coach Nick Fotiu, and in 1995 under coach Mark Kumpel.

Perhaps the top Knights highlight came during the 1992-93 season when Trevor Jobe scored what is still a minor hockey league record 85 goals, with 76 assists, for 161 points and 12 hat tricks in his MVP season.

In the spring of 1996, after failed negotiations for a lease agreement with the Auditorium, the Knights departed to Pensacola, Fla. There, they were renamed the Ice Pilots.

Hockey was revived again with the arrival of the NightHawks in the fall of 1996. The Central Hockey League team only won 12 games, the worst in CHL history. The red-and-blue NightHawks' logo was a hawk showing its claws. Nashvillian Mike Friedman purchased the team in the summer of 1997. In a renewed salute to the old Dixie Flyers, Friedman changed both the name to the Ice Flyers and the colors to blue and gray. David Lohrie led the team to a 41-win season and a second-place finish in the CHL East and was named coach of the year. The team lost in the semi-finals to the eventual CHL Champ Columbus in April 1998. The impending arrival of the Predators led Friedman to move the franchise to Albany, Ga.

This closed the book on three separate chapters, a combined 21 years, of minor league hockey in Nashville, starting and ending with the team named the Flyers. Former Predators President Jack Diller is well aware and appreciative of Nashville's hockey pioneers. "The team and sport obviously made a significant impact on many people here in Middle Tennessee. Other teams such as the South Stars, Knights, NightHawks and Ice Flyers also enjoyed varying degrees of success - all of which helped fuel the excitement for the NHL and arrival of the Predators," Diller said.

Excerpted from "Hockey in Nashville before the Predators," written by hockey historian Harold Huggins and originally printed in the Predators Press: Commemorative Issue, October 10, 1998.
